Rhodes Asks Record $5.8 Billion Budget

3 Programs Will Require Most Money

Education, Welfare And Health To Take 93% Of Total Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes submits a record budget of $5,801,500,000 for the next two years to the Ohio General Assembly today.

The budget does not call for new or increased taxes.

But if the legislature approves the governor's program for vocational and technical education, which will cost roughly $300 million, new sources of revenue will have to be found. The vocational - technical bill will be sent to the legislature next week.

State Finance Director Howard L. Collier reviewed the 112-page budget with reporters Wednesday.

More For Education

The budget calls for increased spending in education, welfare and mental health and correction. These three areas will require 93 per cent of the anticipated income from the general fund.

Ohio will spend more for public welfare than it ever has before. Collier questioned the "propriety of spending three out of every 10 dollars" for welfare, particularly in a period of full employment.

But he stressed that the state has a "clear responsibility" to see that the aged, infirm, blind and crippled receive the basic necessities.

"Obviously," Collier said, "the aid to dependent children (ADC) program is a failure."

He said the intent of ADC was to provide basic living needs while the parent looked for work or received training, but instead it "has attracted massive numbers of people who are not being trained for employment."

'Precariously Balanced'

Collier said the budget for the next two years is "precariously balanced" because of the many uncertainties of what the actual state income will be, the international market situation and possible interest rate changes that will have a direct effect on spending.

Collier said Rhodes is offering a balanced budget, because he wants to turn over the reigns of the state "to the next governor and the next general assembly on a sound fiscal basis."

Rhodes' second term in office ends next year and he can't succeed himself.

The budget represents an increase of 5 per cent in spending over the $5.5 billion budget for the current biennium and is nearly double the $3 billion

Federal Forms Filled For City Program

By ROBERT POPP

Anyone who ever has sweated through the government's long form for an income tax return or filed an application for a federal job will appreciate the task confronted by Planning Coordinator Don Eckert when he sat down to puzzle his way through 27 pages of questions on a blank form called "Review of Progress under the Workable Program for Community Development."

That's the report East Liverpool must file periodically with the Department of Housing and Uban Development in order to retain its eligibility for aid in urban renewal projects and all sorts of federal help in housing programs, including the current developments for the elderly and low - income families.

The completed form goes first to HUD's rtgional office in Chicago and—when approved there—moves forward to the "home office" in Washington. Once the city's workable program was certified as acceptable, the way was opened for loans and grants for dozens of programs.

BUT THE CITY must renew its certification from time to time, usually at the end of each year, in order to continue to remain qualified. It must list its long-range goals, show what parts of the program are completed or in process and list the work it contemplates for the future.

The aid available from Washington, once the program has been accepted, ranges from grants for demolition of dilapidated, unsafe structures to help in a community renewal program covering an entire city. In between, there are such things as rent supplements, grants for code enforcement and low interest loans for property rehabilitation.

The original approval of East Liverpool's workable program led to the high-rise housing development in West End and the project off Maine Blvd. that will be occupied by low-income families.

The current application seeks continued certification of the program.

When model codes are or will be used, also complete Column 4. In addition to the basic codes listed below, show any other codes the community has or needs."

Eckert has completed and forwarded the latest report, which has pages of questions on: Codes and ordinances, the comprehensive community plan; a neighborhood analysis; the administrative organization; financing, and citizen participation in the various programs.

Kennedy Vows Inflation Fight

Nixon And Urban Council To Discuss Crisis In Cities

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon assembled his new Urban Affairs Council today to discuss the crises in America's cities and as the first order of business signed an executive order creating the panel.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon fixed his attention today on the crisis in America's cities, summoning an eight-man team of Cabinet members and advisers to the first meeting of his Urban Affairs Council.

Nixon envisions that panel as the domestic counterpart of the National Security Council planning and implementing efforts to deal with big city problems.

Its first session, presumably was set up as largely procedural, for the naming of staff members to conduct its day-to-day work, including sociologist Daniel P. Moynihan, assistant to the President for urban affairs.

Regular Council Members

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz, Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney, Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe, and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew also will be regular council members.

A Nixon meeting Wednesday with Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy produced a pledge that the new administration will contain "inherited inflationary pressures that are seriously distorting the economy and financial markets."

Kennedy said the Nixon administration will "try to get through this by taking just the steam out of the boiler, the high pressure," without disruptive economic measures which might hoist unemployment.

"We are all conscious of the risks of abrupt and blunt action that could bring unnecessary unemployment. We mean to avoid that," Kennedy said in a statement which bore Nixon's endorsement.

"But we are equally conscious of the risks of not moving decisively, because inflation is undermining both the foundation of our prosperity at home and our balance of payments position."

One Of Cosmonaut Heroes Shot, Wounded In Parade

MOSCOW (AP) — A mentally unbalanced young man fired several shots at a motorcade led by the Soviet Union's four cosmonaut heroes Wednesday, seriously injuring a chauffeur and inflicting slight wounds on cosmonaut Georgy Beregovoy, the Soviet foreign ministry said today.

The shooting took place before more than a thousand onlookers at the entrance to the Kremlin, but it was hushed up for nearly 24 hours. Official confirmation of the incident came only after newsmen asked government spokesmen for details.

A foreign ministry official said the gunman was "schizophrenic."

The attack reportedly occurred as the motorcade approached the Kremlin's Borovitsky Gate, shortly after 2 p.m. Riding in an open car at the head of the procession were the four cosmonauts being honored for their successful flights in Soyuz 4 and Soyuz 5—Vladimir Shatalov, Boris Volynov, Yevgeny Khrunov and Alexei Yeliseyev.

The gunman, described as a young man, was reportedly seized by bystanders and turned over to the police.

The progress of the motorcade from the airport through the city to the Kremlin was shown on television, but the shooting was not broadcast.

The source said Soviet authorities kept it quiet in order not to detract from the heroes' reception given to the four cosmonauts.

The street where the attack reportedly occurred was packed with persons cheering the cosmonauts. As the first cars passed, the source said, the young man dashed from the crowd and fired the shots.

During the subsequent ceremony in the Kremlin Palace of Congresses, television cameras several times showed Beregovoy. He seemed relaxed, and there was no visible evidence of a cut on his neck.

During the festivities a messenger handed notes to Yuri Andropov, chairman of the KGB, the state security committee, and to Leonid I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the Communist party. They were seated, along with other officials and dignitaries, on the stage with the cosmonauts.

Ky Leaves For Paris To Take Part In Talks

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky left for Paris today to supervise the Saigon government's delegation at the Vietnam peace talks. He said he was "very hopeful" that the conference would be successful eventually.

Ky said he had new instructions from President Nguyen Van Thieu but declined to reveal their nature.

"I am very hopeful, as usual," he told newsmen.

15 Are Killed By Tornadoes In Mississippi

HAZLEHURST, Miss. (AP) — A series of tornadoes knifed across central Mississippi early today, killing at least 15 persons and injuring scores.

One twister carved a half-mile swath through Hazlehurst, 30 miles south of Jackson, and searchers reported eight dead and several injured. The Mississippi Highway Patrol reported seven killed in Simpson County between Mendenhall and Harrisville, east of Hazlehurst.

Hospitals at Hazlehurst and Mendenhall were reported filled and victims of the tornadoes were being sent to hospitals in Jackson.

The violent storm touched down a mile south of Hazelhurst at 6:25 a.m. CST and cut a destructive swath one mile long and one half mile wide.

The U.S. Weather Bureau issued a tornado warning for a large portion of central Mississippi and said a tornado was spotted in the Mendenhall-D'Lo area about 40 miles east-northeast of here.

Cooler Weather Due By Friday Afternoon

Mild weather will continue into Friday, but a cooling trend may set in tomorrow afternoon.

The forecast calls for cloudy and mild with scattered showers today and tonight, with the low in the 40s.

Showers also are due Friday, with the high ranging between 45 and 50. It is due to turn colder in the afternoon, with the rain ending at night.

'Miracle,' Mayor Says

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay donated a pint of his blood Wednesday and pronounced it a "miracle" he had any left after three years in City Hall.

"I'm not sure there's any blood left in this tired old body," said the mayor, kicking off a Red Cross drive for donations.

Court Warns Of Court-Martial

Pueblo Skipper Suspected Of Violating Regulations

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — A Navy court told Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher Wednesday that he was suspected of violating naval regulations in surrendering the intelligence ship Pueblo to the North Koreans. He was informed by the five admirals constituting a court of inquiry that anything he said from now on might be used against him in court-martial proceedings.

But Bucher, obviously shaken by the statement, said he would continue to give "full details" of the Pueblo's capture and of the 11 months he and his 81 surviving crewmen spent in captivity.

Bucher resumes his testimony today—the first anniversary of the seizure of the ship by the North Koreans.

Describes Surrender

Wednesday Bucher, 41, described how he gave up the Pueblo with her guns still covered. The court recessed briefly after he told of "receiving" aboard a party of North Korean riflemen about 20 miles off Wonsan Harbor and how they prodded his crew to sitting positions on the deck.

After their return, his face tensed as he heard counsel for the Navy, Capt. William Newsome declare: "Commander Bucher it is my duty to tell you that facts revealed in this court of inquiry render you to be suspect of a violation of USNR Article 0730."

A court of inquiry is not a military trial, like a court-martial, but only an investigative hearing. Nevertheless Bucher's status suddenly had changed from "a party to the court" to "suspect." Shortly after the crew's release just before Christmas at least two Navy admirals had called Bucher and his men heroes.

Quotes Regulations

With a Brooklyn twang, Newsome quoted regulations:

"The commanding officer shall not permit his command to be searched by any person representing a foreign state nor permit any other personnel under his command to be removed from that command by such a person, so long as he has the power to resist."

WEATHER
Cloudy and mild with scattered showers today and tonight; Friday, showers and turning colder in afternoon.

Clairton Schools Will Return To Bible Readings

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Clairton schools will return to daily Bible readings and prayers despite notification by state education officials that the move would violate the U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

"The worst they can do is to get an injunction to stop us," Dr. Robert LaFrankie, superintendent of Schools, said Wednesday.

The Clairton school board ordered prayer reinstated earlier in the week over the objection of its solicitor and to the applause of members of community parent - teacher organizations.

"I always have been a supporter of Bible reading and prayers in the schools," said LaFrankie. "A respect for the Almighty gives support to our efforts to teach a system of values for which today there is an evident need."

Clairton Schools Will Return To Bible Readings

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Clairton schools will return to daily Bible readings and prayers despite notification by state education officials that the move would violate the U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

"The worst they can do is to get an injunction to stop us," Dr. Robert LaFrankie, superintendent of Schools, said Wednesday.

The Clairton school board ordered prayer reinstated earlier in the week over the objection of its solicitor and to the applause of members of community parent - teacher organizations.

"I always have been a supporter of Bible reading and prayers in the schools," said LaFrankie. "A respect for the Almighty gives support to our efforts to teach a system of values for which today there is an evident need."

Some Of Elyria Police, Firemen To Face Layoff

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Mayor Leonard P. Reichlin says some of Elyria's policemen and firemen will be laid off because the city cannot afford to pay them.

A proposed one per cent income tax was turned down by city voters in a special election Tuesday. Part of the $1.6 million annually the tax would have brought in was to have been used to make up the deficit caused by a 15 per cent pay raise given the safety forces last year, give them another 15 per cent raise and bring their numbers to authorized strength.

The mayor said Wednesday the exact number to be laid off from the safety forces and the start of the layoffs would be decided after a thorough study of the city's finances is completed.

Mayor Reichlin said there also will be layoffs in other departments.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard, beset by professional and domestic problems since his acquittal in 1966 in a retrial on a charge of murdering his first wife, is giving it another go, this time in suburban Columbus.

Some Of Elyria Police, Firemen To Face Layoff

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Mayor Leonard P. Reichlin says some of Elyria's policemen and firemen will be laid off because the city cannot afford to pay them.

A proposed one per cent income tax was turned down by city voters in a special election Tuesday. Part of the $1.6 million annually the tax would have brought in was to have been used to make up the deficit caused by a 15 per cent pay raise given the safety forces last year, give them another 15 per cent raise and bring their numbers to authorized strength.

The mayor said Wednesday the exact number to be laid off from the safety forces and the start of the layoffs would be decided after a thorough study of the city's finances is completed.

Mayor Reichlin said there also will be layoffs in other departments.

Floating Coaltitions

The Republican administration of President Richard M. Nixon has revealed something of its plan for achieving its legislative goals in the Congress. It may not be a new concept but at least it is a new name for an old technique.

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the new Republican whip in the Senate, who will have a key role in guiding the administration's legislative programs through the upper house, describes the method to be employed as the use of "floating coalitions."

On the face of it this seems to be a rather fancy name for simple opportunism. Sen. Scott explains that the administration leaders will attempt to work for majorities wherever they may be legitimately found.

In other words, the Republicans may find it advantageous, at times, to combine with the Southern Democrats for voting power; at other times with the Northern Democrats for strength on a given piece of legislation, and at still other times with the Western Democrats.

There had been speculation, that in order to accomplish their legislative aims, the GOP would either have to coalesce with the Southern Democrats or the liberal branch of the Democratic party.

But apparently this is not to be the case, at least at the outset. Opportunism it seemingly is. "Floating coalitions" it is to be called but pragmatism it certainly is.

The Mail Must Go Through . . .

Arrival of an engraved invitation to President Nixon's inauguration mailed 13 days before the event and received by a city couple the day after poses an almost irresistable temptation for almost everyone to comment upon the U.S. postal service.

There are loyal and capable employes in the Postal Department, there are some efficient and modern techniques for handling the mail, and it is unfair to generalize about this gigantic operation which is prey to failings as are newspapers, steel firms and tiny households.

So the Paul Braslawce family didn't want to go to the inauguration anyway.

But there have been too many incidents in recent years of major problems created and sizeable expenses incurred because the mail did not go through on time — not by day or two, but by several days or weeks.

It is a growing tendency to shrug off these errors and failures as a part of margin for mistake computerized into the vast, intricate, faceless mass of bureaucratic and corporate operations.

We believe there is also a responsibility for seeking improvement, for attempting to do better, and while we salute most of the postmen and their backup workers, we know there is something wrong somewhere and hope someone is going to start doing something about it instead of making a joke or explaining difficulties or passing the buck.

One way to try to get something done is to write to your Postmaster and your Congressman about any difficulities you have had, and ask for action on improving the mail service. This should be helpful to them in meeting what is certainly their duty, and they should appreciate it — if they ever get the letter while they are in office.

Egg On Navy's Face

Initial testimony in the court of inquiry investigating the capture of the USS Pueblo is a clear indictment of the Navy's lack of preparation for events that befell the spy ship.

Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher told the court there was no explosive system aboard the intelligence ship to destroy secret selectronic equipment. Axes and sledge hammers were the only tools available to smash the equipment.

His request for a "destruct" system was turned down.

Cmdr. Bucher said there was a small incinerator, a paper shredder and weighted bags aboard to dispose of secret documents but the first two worked slowly and there weren't enough bags.

The skipper berated the general condition of the Pueblo, a former Army coastal freighter. He described the telephone system as inadequate and reported problems with the steering system.

Because of top-level decisions supposedly in the interest of saving money and time, North Koreans were able to seize the ship and hold its crew captive for 11 months.

The Pueblo incident drew America and the rest of the world perilously close to another military confrontation.

The lesson in how not to conduct a spy mission has been expensive and dangerous. It should not be ignored in future intelligence operations.

Note On The Door

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — When President Richard Nixon and his wife, Pat, came back from the swearing-in ceremonies at the Capitol they found a note from Mr. Johnson pinned on the front door of the White House.

Art Buchwald

It read:

"Dear Dick and Pat,

"The key is under the door mat and you can have all the food that's left in the icebox. We've tried to leave the place as spick-and-span as possible but little Lyn was unable to find several of his toys. If you find a brown teddy bear with one eye, would you mail it to us care of the L.B.J. Ranch, Johnson City, Tex?

"THE DOGS CHEWED UP the rug on the last day and we didn't have time to repair it, so if you folks want to have it fixed, you can send the bill to us.

"The fuse box is in the cellar behind the furnace. The electric bills are outrageous, so watch the help and see that they turn out all the lights. "Garbage goes out Friday, trash on Monday but don't mix the two or there is a $25 fine. For example, don't throw out your budget messages with your press secretary's briefing transcripts.

"The appliances are all in pretty good shape, though it gets hot in the kitchen every once in a while. You can blame Harry Truman for that. He knew about the problem, but every time someone wanted to do something about it, he said, 'If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.'

"Lady Bird's left a list of handymen to call if you need anything repaired. If you call the plumber and tell him you're the president of the United States, he'll be over within 48 hours. The electrician might take a little longer but he lives in Bethesda, Md., and usually doesn't make house calls.

'STRUCTURALLY, I THINK you'll find the building itself in fairly good condition, with one exception. When we first moved in, we found hordes of newspapermen coming out of the walls of the west wing of the White House. We called the exterminators and they did everything — they sprayed them, laid out poison bait for them, set mouse traps and even plugged up all the leaks and holes. But the newspapermen just kept multiplying.

"In the last year Lady Bird and I decided to ignore them and I'd advise you to do the same. Trying to get rid of them seems to do more damage to the house than letting them gnaw on the foundations of your administration.

"The pool should be backwashed twice a week. Marvin Watson used to do it for me before I made him postmaster general. If you don't want to do it yourself, you can probably get Wally Hickel to do it for you, after all, he owes you a favor.

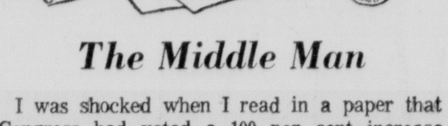

"YOU DON'T HAVE too many neighbors around you but we solved the problem by inviting people over for lunch and dinner. The only time we ran into trouble is when we invited a bunch of artists and writers over to the house and they started passing around a petition saying they only came to eat with us to show their contempt for what we were doing in Vietnam. It kind of hurt to see them eat my groceries.

"There are a bunch of trees and bushes in the garage that Lady Bird never did get a chance to plant and she said Pat could have them, if they take a dislike to you they'll

"I guess that's pretty much it. I think you'll like the house. It has a je ne sais quoi them. She also left the silver shovel for Pat. quality to it that's hard to explain.

"The only advice I have is don't get too attached to the place. The landlords are pretty fickle people and no matter what you do for kick you out when your four-year lease is up."

Sincerely,
Lyndon

The Middle Man

I was shocked when I read in a paper that Congress had voted a 100 per cent increase in the President's salary. This gives the House Members justification to raise their own salary from $30,000 to $42,500.

It seems the government is ready to help everyone but the middle man. Medicare for the aged, (for which we are grateful). Several programs were set up for the poverty stricken. Aid for foreign countries. Everyone has been given a hand, from our high paid officials (who need a raise) to the low income. . .But what about the middle man?

The dictionary describes the middle man as a go-between. I describe him as the store clerks; waiters; waitresses; service station attendants; office workers; municipal workers; and many more. At one time he was called middle class. What has been done for him?

He is the man who suffers the most from the high cost of living. He is a man whose income is just a little too high to be a poverty income. He is a man who manages to buy his own home, but can't afford to live . . . He exists!

If taxes keep going up along with the cost of living, what will become of him, the middle man? Who has the answers?

Must Put Together The Pieces

VICTOR RIESEL

Nixon On A Collision Course

WASHINGTON — Now that the ball is over and the inauguration invitations are heading for the scrapbooks, President Richard Milhuos Nixon is on a collision course with some of his more conservative champions—especially on the explosive labor front.

Victor Riesel

There are those who hit the hustings for Dick Nixon the candidate who want action—their kind of action—from Richard Nixon the President. They are influential in the Republican state machines. They are influential in the Halls of Congress.

And they campaigned on the promise they'd cut labor and its leaders "down to size"—something whch will take a considerable amount of trimming. Such Republicans as Michigan Sen. Robert Griffin, Walter Reuther's neighbor, want to wipe out the National Labor Relations Board. They want to set up labor courts. They want to strip national unions of the right, and power, to call nationwide strikes. They want some form of compulsory arbitration.

This is not just the rhetoric of the campaign orator. Sen. Griffin and some of his colleagues have it all spelled out in tight legislative form and in the congressional hopper.

They want Mr. Nixon's support.

But they're not about to get it.

QUITE TO THE CONTRARY in this political aviary, from which the old hawks, doves and those who turned chicken fled, long before the bands struck up and the marchers retook Washington, it is the year of the owl.

For Mr. Nixon, one of the wisest of the owls is New York's Senator Jack Javits. It is to "Jack" that Mr. Nixon has been turning quietly for advice on labor policy.

For Mr. Nixon, the senator has many virtues: Jack Javits knows the labor movement intimately and its leaders by their first names. Mr. Nixon believes Mr. Javits can help bring much of the movement into the Republican camp. Both leaders refuse to take for granted that labor's heart belongs to "Hubert."

Furthermore, Sen. Javits can swing Democrats and Independents in the pivotal state of New York, which Mr. Nixon lost and many very well need for reelection. And the President is not about to get any on-the-line help from Mayor Lindsay or Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

So the senior senator from New York, philosophically, politically and professionally does not believe in restrictive labor legislation or in alienating the movement.

"Very definitely I believe that Dick Nixon's posture for his administration," Jack Javits told ewsmen the other day, "is to be a problem solver, and not to accept or encourage any label, liberal or business, and seek labor's cooperation in the solution of labor problems rather than assume the union leaders are not with him. He must recognize the interest of working people economically are middle-class interests. Of course Mr. Nixon and his people and I have discussed this."

BUT EVEN WITHOUT the counsel of Sen. Javits, Mr. Nixon would not be Griffin-minded. Mr. Nixon simply is opposed to any frontal attack on labor. Last October 25, just a few days before election day, the Republican candidate said so quite bluntly in a note to a newsman.

"As you also know, I have long had a deep interest in the area of labor-management relations," Mr. Nixon wrote. "Likewise, I have made clear my view that the Federal government ought not intervene with the give and take of the collective bargaining process except when the failure of that process endangers the health or safety of our nation or when other legislation requires it.

"Furthermore, such intervention must always be neutral, favoring neither management nor labor. It is the lack of this Federal neutrality—the belief of one party or the other that an administration will take sides—which I believe has also generated more labor-management controversy than otherwise would be the case. . . .

"In my judgement, the best answer does not lie in compulsory arbitration; rather, we must first give collective bargaining a real chance to function under an administration committed to responsible fiscal policies and true neutrality in these encounters."

MR. NIXON MEANT IT then and means it now. For the insiders the evidence is there—amply.

Some of Mr. Nixon's owls are mighty wise. They know that this is a year of potential rail and air strikes. And nothing gets louder than the grounding of airliners or the paralysis of crack trains. The public screams. In the storm center of those strike threats will be the powerful International Assn. of Machinists.

And it is perhaps coincidence, or the new owl-ism, but most of the Labor Dept. now is headed by men heavily endorsed by Machinists President Roy Siemiller. At the very least this is a sign of the times.

Mr. Siemiller, whose union will strike anything from phantom jet fighters planes and ball powder plants to airlines, enthusiastically backed Labor Secretary Shultz, was delighted with the appointment of his good friend Jim Hodgson (former Lockheed vice president for industrial relations) as Under-Secretary of Labor, and was as ecstatic as a sophisticated labor leader can be when one of his own union colleagues, William J. Usery, IAM grand lodge representative at Cape Kennedy, was named assistant secretary of labor for labor-management relations.

Obviously all this doesn't delight Sen. Griffin and his legions. And just as obviously, Presdent Nixon doesn't mind.

There's a collision coming.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Inauguration Significance

How many people really understand the true significance of the inauguration of a president of the United States?

It is not an impression to be obtained merely by watching the crowds, the bands and the parades, or by reading about the gala affairs, entertainment and other forms of celebration. Nor is the meaning of the event necessarily revealed in the text of the inaugural address.

The basic and fundamental challenge to a new president is to be found in the 35-word oath he takes. It is contained in the Constitution and reads as follows:

"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

It will be noted that the mandate doesn't say "to preserve, protect and defend" the American people because the Constitution itself explicitly mentions these objectives. So a president who ignores in any way the obligation to maintain the security of the United States against both external and internal threats isn't carrying out his oath of office.

But how does anyone know what is covered by the Constitution in view of the confused state of mind today which has resulted from the arbitrary way the Supreme Court has undertaken to rewrite the Constitution at will?

Under the Constitution, for example, the citizens are supposed to be given "equal protection of the law." This relates not only to racial discrimination but to the protection of life and property.

It provides punishment of law violators as a way to deter the commission of crime. It forbids discrimination because of race or religion or color or sex. But a woman who can't lift any tools is not being discriminated against in employment if she isn't hired for a job of this type.

An employer has the constitutional right to judge the efficiency of his employes. Is he being protected today in his exercise of this right?

WHEN, MOREOVER, there are 175 white and 10 negro children in a school and all the applicants in a neighborhood have been admitted, can governmental coercion then be used to correct "racial imbalance" by moving some Negro children from another school district?

The Congress, by law, has said that federal funds cannot be withheld from educational institutions as a means of removing "racial imbalance." But, under regulations issued by the last administration, this has been done.

It is the duty of a president to see that the laws are fairly administered and that governmental power shall not be misused in order to win the political support of factions or groups in sheer violation of what the Constitution itself says.

The United States has become involved in a war in Southeast Asia not only to repel aggression but to stop the Communist regimes in Moscow and Peking from taking over adjacent territories and depriving peoples of their right of self-determination.

Unfortunately, there has arisen an opposition within our country, parts of which at times are treasonable. Whether or not Communist influences are to some extent back of this, as had been indicated in reports of a committee of the House of Representatives after lengthy investigation, the fact remains that many individuals have organized "antiwar" groups which have, intentionally or unintentionally, given "aid and comfort to the enemy."

The Constitution requires the president to see that laws forbidding treason are enforced. He has an obligation to appoint judges to the high court who are more interested in the spirit and letter of the Constitution than in using technicalities to assure freedom from punishment for those who cry "freedom of speech" no matter whether disorder is provoked or property destroyed or human life imperilled.

TAXPAYERS' FUNDS can help to build not only a peaceful country but a prosperous economy and there are plenty of constructive reforms which can be made and social welfare projects established.

But the presidential oath commands the chief executive to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution," and this will be the true measure of whether President Nixon is fulfilling his oath of office.

Floating Coaltitions

The Republican administration of President Richard M. Nixon has revealed something of its plan for achieving its legislative goals in the Congress. It may not be a new concept but at least it is a new name for an old technique.

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the new Republican whip in the Senate, who will have a key role in guiding the administration's legislative programs through the upper house, describes the method to be employed as the use of "floating coalitions."

On the face of it this seems to be a rather fancy name for simple opportunism. Sen. Scott explains that the administration leaders will attempt to work for majorities wherever they may be legitimately found.

In other words, the Republicans may find it advantageous, at times, to combine with the Southern Democrats for voting power; at other times with the Northern Democrats for strength on a given piece of legislation, and at still other times with the Western Democrats.

There had been speculation, that in order to accomplish their legislative aims, the GOP would either have to coalesce with the Southern Democrats or the liberal branch of the Democratic party.

But apparently this is not to be the case, at least at the outset. Opportunism it seemingly is. "Floating coalitions" it is to be called but pragmatism it certainly is.

The Mail Must Go Through . . .

Arrival of an engraved invitation to President Nixon's inauguration mailed 13 days before the event and received by a city couple the day after poses an almost irresistable temptation for almost everyone to comment upon the U.S. postal service.

There are loyal and capable employes in the Postal Department, there are some efficient and modern techniques for handling the mail, and it is unfair to generalize about this gigantic operation which is prey to failings as are newspapers, steel firms and tiny households.

So the Paul Braslawce family didn't want to go to the inauguration anyway.

But there have been too many incidents in recent years of major problems created and sizeable expenses incurred because the mail did not go through on time — not by day or two, but by several days or weeks.

It is a growing tendency to shrug off these errors and failures as a part of margin for mistake computerized into the vast, intricate, faceless mass of bureaucratic and corporate operations.

We believe there is also a responsibility for seeking improvement, for attempting to do better, and while we salute most of the postmen and their backup workers, we know there is something wrong somewhere and hope someone is going to start doing something about it instead of making a joke or explaining difficulties or passing the buck.

One way to try to get something done is to write to your Postmaster and your Congressman about any difficulities you have had, and ask for action on improving the mail service. This should be helpful to them in meeting what is certainly their duty, and they should appreciate it — if they ever get the letter while they are in office.

Egg On Navy's Face

Initial testimony in the court of inquiry investigating the capture of the USS Pueblo is a clear indictment of the Navy's lack of preparation for events that befell the spy ship.

Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher told the court there was no explosive system aboard the intelligence ship to destroy secret selectronic equipment. Axes and sledge hammers were the only tools available to smash the equipment.

His request for a "destruct" system was turned down.

Cmdr. Bucher said there was a small incinerator, a paper shredder and weighted bags aboard to dispose of secret documents but the first two worked slowly and there weren't enough bags.

The skipper berated the general condition of the Pueblo, a former Army coastal freighter. He described the telephone system as inadequate and reported problems with the steering system.

Because of top-level decisions supposedly in the interest of saving money and time, North Koreans were able to seize the ship and hold its crew captive for 11 months.

The Pueblo incident drew America and the rest of the world perilously close to another military confrontation.

The lesson in how not to conduct a spy mission has been expensive and dangerous. It should not be ignored in future intelligence operations.

Note On The Door

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — When President Richard Nixon and his wife, Pat, came back from the swearing-in ceremonies at the Capitol they found a note from Mr. Johnson pinned on the front door of the White House.

It read:

"Dear Dick and Pat,

"The key is under the door mat and you can have all the food that's left in the icebox. We've tried to leave the place as spick-and-span as possible but little Lyn was unable to find several of his toys. If you find a brown teddy bear with one eye, would you mail it to us care of the L.B.J. Ranch, Johnson City, Tex?

Art Buchwald

"THE DOGS CHEWED UP the rug on the last day and we didn't have time to repair it, so if you folks want to have it fixed, you can send the bill to us.

"The fuse box is in the cellar behind the furnace. The electric bills are outrageous, so watch the help and see that they turn out all the lights. "Garbage goes out Friday, trash on Monday but don't mix the two or there is a $25 fine. For example, don't throw out your budget messages with your press secretary's briefing transcripts.

"The appliances are all in pretty good shape, though it gets hot in the kitchen every once in a while. You can blame Harry Truman for that. He knew about the problem, but every time someone wanted to do something about it, he said, 'If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.'

"Lady Bird's left a list of handymen to call if you need anything repaired. If you call the plumber and tell him you're the president of the United States, he'll be over within 48 hours. The electrician might take a little longer but he lives in Bethesda, Md., and usually doesn't make house calls.

'STRUCTURALLY, I THINK you'll find the building itself in fairly good condition, with one exception. When we first moved in, we found hordes of newspapermen coming out of the walls of the west wing of the White House. We called the exterminators and they did everything — they sprayed them, laid out poison bait for them, set mouse traps and even plugged up all the leaks and holes. But the newspapermen just kept multiplying.

"In the last year Lady Bird and I decided to ignore them and I'd advise you to do the same. Trying to get rid of them seems to do more damage to the house than letting them gnaw on the foundations of your administration.

"The pool should be backwashed twice a week. Marvin Watson used to do it for me before I made him postmaster general. If you don't want to do it yourself, you can probably get Wally Hickel to do it for you, after all, he owes you a favor.

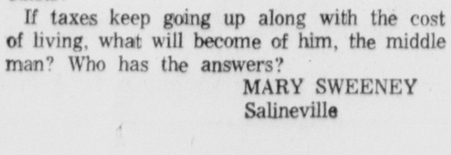

"YOU DON'T HAVE too many neighbors around you but we solved the problem by inviting people over for lunch and dinner. The only time we ran into trouble is when we invited a bunch of artists and writers over to the house and they started passing around a petition saying they only came to eat with us to show their contempt for what we were doing in Vietnam. It kind of hurt to see them eat my groceries.

"There are a bunch of trees and bushes in the garage that Lady Bird never did get a chance to plant and she said Pat could have them, if they take a dislike to you they'll

"I guess that's pretty much it. I think you'll like the house. It has a je ne sais quoi them. She also left the silver shovel for Pat, quality to it that's hard to explain.

"The only advice I have is don't get too attached to the place. The landlords are pretty fickle people and no matter what you do for kick you out when your four-year lease is up."

Sincerely,
Lyndon

The Middle Man

I was shocked when I read in a paper that Congress had voted a 100 per cent increase in the President's salary. This gives the House Members justification to raise their own salary from $30,000 to $42,500.

It seems the government is ready to help everyone but the middle man. Medicare for the aged, (for which we are grateful). Several programs were set up for the poverty stricken. Aid for foreign countries. Everyone has been given a hand, from our high paid officials (who need a raise) to the low income. . .But what about the middle man?

The dictionary describes the middle man as a go-between. I describe him as the store clerks; waiters; waitresses; service station attendants; office workers; municipal workers; and many more. At one time he was called middle class. What has been done for him?

He is the man who suffers the most from the high cost of living. He is a man whose income is just a little too high to be a poverty income. He is a man who manages to buy his own home, but can't afford to live . . . He exists!

If taxes keep going up along with the cost of living, what will become of him, the middle man? Who has the answers?

Must Put Together The Pieces

VICTOR RIESEL

Nixon On A Collision Course

WASHINGTON — Now that the ball is over and the inauguration invitations are heading for the scrapbooks, President Richard Milhuos Nixon is on a collision course with some of his more conservative champions—especially on the explosive labor front.

Victor Riesel

There are those who hit the hustings for Dick Nixon the candidate who want action—their kind of action—from Richard Nixon the President. They are influential in the Republican state machines. They are influential in the Halls of Congress.

And they campaigned on the promise they'd cut labor and its leaders "down to size"—something whch will take a considerable amount of trimming. Such Republicans as Michigan Sen. Robert Griffin, Walter Reuther's neighbor, want to wipe out the National Labor Relations Board. They want to set up labor courts. They want to strip national unions of the right, and power, to call nationwide strikes. They want some form of compulsory arbitration.

This is not just the rhetoric of the campaign orator. Sen. Griffin and some of his colleagues have it all spelled out in tight legislative form and in the congressional hopper.

They want Mr. Nixon's support.

But they're not about to get it.

QUITE TO THE CONTRARY in this political aviary, from which the old hawks, doves and those who turned chicken fled, long before the bands struck up and the marchers retook Washington, it is the year of the owl.

For Mr. Nixon, one of the wisest of the owls is New York's Senator Jack Javits. It is to "Jack" that Mr. Nixon has been turning quietly for advice on labor policy.

For Mr. Nixon, the senator has many virtues: Jack Javits knows the labor movement intimately and its leaders by their first names. Mr. Nixon believes Mr. Javits can help bring much of the movement into the Republican camp. Both leaders refuse to take for granted that labor's heart belongs to "Hubert."

Furthermore, Sen. Javits can swing Democrats and Independents in the pivotal state of New York, which Mr. Nixon lost and many very well need for reelection. And the President is not about to get any on-the-line help from Mayor Lindsay or Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

So the senior senator from New York, philosophically, politically and professionally does not believe in restrictive labor legislation or in alienating the movement.

"Very definitely I believe that Dick Nixon's posture for his administration," Jack Javits told ewsmen the other day, "is to be a problem solver, and not to accept or encourage any label, liberal or business, and seek labor's cooperation in the solution of labor problems rather than assume the union leaders are not with him. He must recognize the interest of working people economically are middle-class interests. Of course Mr. Nixon and his people and I have discussed this."

BUT EVEN WITHOUT the counsel of Sen. Javits, Mr. Nixon would not be Griffin-minded. Mr. Nixon simply is opposed to any frontal attack on labor. Last October 25, just a few days before election day, the Republican candidate said so quite bluntly in a note to a newsman.

"As you also know, I have long had a deep interest in the area of labor-management relations," Mr. Nixon wrote. "Likewise, I have made clear my view that the Federal government ought not intervene with the give and take of the collective bargaining process except when the failure of that process endangers the health or safety of our nation or when other legislation requires it.

"Furthermore, such intervention must always be neutral, favoring neither management nor labor. It is the lack of this Federal neutrality—the belief of one party or the other that an administration will take sides—which I believe has also generated more labor-management controversy than otherwise would be the case. . . .

"In my judgement, the best answer does not lie in compulsory arbitration; rather, we must first give collective bargaining a real chance to function under an administration committed to responsible fiscal policies and true neutrality in these encounters."

MR. NIXON MEANT IT then and means it now. For the insiders the evidence is there—amply.

Some of Mr. Nixon's owls are mighty wise. They know that this is a year of potential rail and air strikes. And nothing gets louder than the grounding of airliners or the paralysis of crack trains. The public screams. In the storm center of those strike threats will be the powerful International Assn. of Machinists.

And it is perhaps coincidence, or the new owl-ism, but most of the Labor Dept. now is headed by men heavily endorsed by Machinists President Roy Siemiller. At the very least this is a sign of the times.

Mr. Siemiller, whose union will strike anything from phantom jet fighters planes and ball powder plants to airlines, enthusiastically backed Labor Secretary Shultz, was delighted with the appointment of his good friend Jim Hodgson (former Lockheed vice president for industrial relations) as Under-Secretary of Labor, and was as ecstatic as a sophisticated labor leader can be when one of his own union colleagues, William J. Usery, IAM grand lodge representative at Cape Kennedy, was named assistant secretary of labor for labor-management relations.

Obviously all this doesn't delight Sen. Griffin and his legions. And just as obviously, President Nixon doesn't mind.

There's a collision coming.

Inauguration Significance

How many people really understand the true significance of the inauguration of a president of the United States?

It is not an impression to be obtained merely by watching the crowds, the bands and the parades, or by reading about the gala affairs, entertainment and other forms of celebration. Nor is the meaning of the event necessarily revealed in the text of the inaugural address.

The basic and fundamental challenge to a new president is to be found in the 35-word oath he takes. It is contained in the Constitution and reads as follows:

"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

It will be noted that the mandate doesn't say "to preserve, protect and defend" the American people because the Constitution itself explicitly mentions these objectives. So a president who ignores in any way the obligation to maintain the security of the United States against both external and internal threats isn't carrying out his oath of office.

But how does anyone know what is covered by the Constitution in view of the confused state of mind today which has resulted from the arbitrary way the Supreme Court has undertaken to rewrite the Constitution at will?

Under the Constitution, for example, the citizens are supposed to be given "equal protection of the law." This relates not only to racial discrimination but to the protection of life and property.

It provides punishment of law violators as a way to deter the commission of crime. It forbids discrimination because of race or religion or color or sex. But a woman who can't lift any tools is not being discriminated against in employment if she isn't hired for a job of this type.

An employer has the constitutional right to judge the efficiency of his employes. Is he being protected today in his exercise of this right?

WHEN, MOREOVER, there are 175 white and 10 negro children in a school and all the applicants in a neighborhood have been admitted, can governmental coercion then be used to correct "racial imbalance" by moving some Negro children from another school district?

The Congress, by law, has said that federal funds cannot be withheld from educational institutions as a means of removing "racial imbalance." But, under regulations issued by the last administration, this has been done.

It is the duty of a president to see that the laws are fairly administered and that governmental power shall not be misused in order to win the political support of factions or groups in sheer violation of what the Constitution itself says.

The United States has become involved in a war in Southeast Asia not only to repel aggression but to stop the Communist regimes in Moscow and Peking from taking over adjacent territories and depriving peoples of their right of self-determination.

Unfortunately, there has arisen an opposition within our country, parts of which at times are treasonable. He has an obligation to appoint judges to the high court who are more interested in the spirit and letter of the Constitution than in using technicalities to assure freedom from punishment for those who cry "freedom of speech" no matter whether disorder is provoked or property destroyed or human life imperilled.

TAXPAYERS' FUNDS can help to build not only a peaceful country but a prosperous economy and there are plenty of constructive reforms which can be made and social welfare projects established.

But the presidential oath commands the chief executive to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution," and this will be the true measure of whether President Nixon is fulfilling his oath of office.

Lawyers Ask Meeting

Midland Council Plans Talk On Police Dispute

A move for negotiation of a new police duty schedule for meeting or arbitration of the issue was submitted by attorneys for the police at a meeting of Midland Council Wednesday night.

Council also appointed Ed Cilli, assistant borough secretary, to a new post of executive supervisor of services, discussed a possible solution to industrial noise from Crucible Steel Co. and opened bids for two new police cruisers.

A request for a meeting to discuss the police situation was received from the law firm of Roth and Herskovitz of Aliquippa, representing officers on the police force dissatisfied with a new work schedule established by Mayor Eli Corak and Police Chief Vincent D'Itri earlier this month.

The law firm advised Council the dissident police officers are entitled to a meeting with officials on the matter under a new law approved by the General Assembly in 1968. It was pointed out the police may seek arbitration of the problem under the new legislation.

Councilman Ray Presutti suggested a meeting be held with the police Feb. 12 prior to the regular Council meeting, and the proposal was approved.

—:—

NINE POLICE officers appeared before Council Jan. 8 to protest the new duty schedule, which was later revised somewhat.

Council formally approved a resolution to create the post of executive supervisor of services, and named Cilli to the post at a salary of $7,400 annually. He will be in charge of employes involved in collection of garbage and refuse and will have other duties assigned by Council.

Council authorized the firm of Michael Baker Jr. to proceed with updating of the Midland comprehensive plan. With this plan completed, the borough can apply for federal and state aid.

Matt Stegner of the firm, expert on planning, will be in charge. Mayor Corak said without a workable plan, an application for aid would not be considered. The study will cost $11,500.

George Ford, director of community relations at Crucible, said engineers have determined three requirements for curbing the noise of the new oxygen converter. He said when the unit was ordered from the supplier, it was supposed to be workable. The company is now trying to get the supplier to share the high cost of eliminating the noise, he said, adding this could possibly be completed in several months.

He also said engineers are working on the "fly ash" problem, and this should be solved in about three months.

Ford said Crucible realizes its social obligation to the Midland residents.

—:—

MAYOR CORAK asked if the Crucible newspaper, which he termed a "bond" with the people, would be continued. Ford said the Steelman paper which was published at Pittsburgh, would be discontinued, but the local company paper, published every month, would again be mailed on March 1. He said this issue will help explain the reorganization and the relations between the Colt offices in New York and Midland.

He said the acquisition of Crucible is the first of its kind for Colt. Crucible is the only steel mill of the 12 companies Colt controls, and it has doubled its size. He said he hopes Colt officials become better acquainted with the plant and community of Midland. Ford commented there is no staff in Pittsburgh, all corporate contact is made between Midland and New York.

In other business, Council passed a resolution creating an Adult Recreational Council. The Council will consist of nine members representing local organizations. They will elect a secretary and chairman. The group will supervise and maintain the Youth Center.

Council refused a request from the Pennsylvania Department of Highways for the borough to participate in the resurfacing of Route 68 from the west end of Midland through Industry. This is the first time the borough has received such a request, and Councilmen said since Route 68 is a state highway, the state should be responsible.

A REQUEST for the Midland Volunteer Fire Department to help at intersections in the annual "Mothers March" of the March of Dimes was granted.

Mayor Corak asked Council members to support legislation which would be brought before the Pennsylvania Finance Committee meeting in Harrisburg by the Pennsylvania Boroughs Association Jan. 30-31 if they attend.

This legislation would put a ceiling on what arbitrators can award. The mayor said at times arbitrators get "carried away" by sob stories and the awards mandate tax increases.

Councilman William Shovlin reported meetings are being planned with local directors to set up a system so Midland will have a doctor on duty on Thursdays. He also asked that a letter be sent to the Beaver County Medical Society for help in acquiring another doctor for Midland.

Charles Loll, certified public accountant, was hired to audit the tax books.

Council authorized the demolition of several sub standard buildings purchased recently by the Midland Municipal Authority. Councilman Joseph Hibbard said the buildings are in dangerous condition and should be torn down.

Mayor Corak asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to Charles R. Schmitt of Midland, who has retired from Crucible and is moving from the area. He said he was active in community life, serving on various committees and will be a great loss to the community.

The bids for the two new 8-cylinder police cars include Migliore Ford, $3,200 for each car including a $570 allowance for each of the old cars and a $150 allowance for tax exemption, with an alternate bid of $388 for air conditioning in one car; Sid Riezner Chevrolet and Oldsmobile, $3,280 for each car including a $500 allowance on the old cars, $151.50 for tax exemption and $350 for air conditioning; Midland Auto Sales, $3,100 for one car, including $656 allowance and $140 tax exemption and a $375 bid on the air conditioner. The other bid from Midland Auto Sales was $3,256 with a $500 allowance for the old car and $140 tax exemption. The bids were turned over to the secretary, solicitor and engineers for action.

Hearings Set For 2 Facing Entry Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set preliminary hearings next Wednesday morning for two men charged with an early morning burglary Monday at an East End service station.

The judge continued the appearance bonds of Robert Prescott, 23, of 212 Jackson St. and Robert Savors, 38, of Chester RD 1, named in affidavits signed by Patrolmen Charles Coen and Bruce Conkle that allege they took $69 from a rifled cash register in Pillar's Gulf Station on Pennsylvania Ave. near Boyce St., operated by James Pillar.

Prescott is represented by William Telzrow, Wellsville attorney. Bernard Fineman of East Liverpool is counsel for Savors. The attorneys requested continuances when their clients were taken before the court today. No pleas were entered.

Police said they were notified by phone of an apparent burglary at 1:21 a. m. Monday and the two suspects were in custody seven minutes later. Officers said two doors at the service station were found unlocked. They said a cash register had been moved to the back room of the station and rifled of $55 in bills and $14.76 in change.

When Prescott and Savors were found in an auto at Pennsylvania and Maple St., approximately $69 was found on the floor of the car, police said.

According to latest measurements, the earth is between two and five billion years old.

Preparations Launched For 2nd Pottery Festival

Preliminary planning for the second annual Tri-State Pottery Festival in East Liverpool was launched during a dinner meeting of the festival association Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

H. J. English was elected president of the recently Ohio-chartered association following selection of trustees for the organization.

English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, served as chairman for the organization which sponsored the first festival in 1968.

—:—

TRUSTEES elected are Audley Elliott, George Barbaree, John Starkey, English, E. R. Chandler, Thomas Phillips, Mrs. James Locke, Mrs. Helen Moore and Mrs. Geraldine Reed. Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr. is statutory agent.

Barbaree was elected vice president, Chandler secretary and Starkey treasurer.

The festival, which will feature pottery displays and crafts, special entertainment, booths and concessions and tours of potteries, is scheduled for June 19-21.

English suggested the organizations which undertook special projects last year accept the same responsibilities for 1969.

These include the City Federation of Women's Clubs, displays; Business and Professional Women,, program booklet; Quota Club, souvenirs; Trades and Labor Council and the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, crafts and special events; Jaycees, booths and concessions, and Senior Citizens, special Senior Citizens Day.

Discussion was held on various publicity projects, including a contest for selection of a theme for the festival.

A festival chairman is to be appointed by the trustees within a few weeks, English said.

Hanoverton Man To Face Charge Of Check Fraud

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a preliminary hearing Tuesday for a man identified as James Sturgill of Lisbon Rd., Hanoverton, accused of cashing two checks in November at the Loblaw Market on Dresden Ave. when he did not have sufficient funds on deposit in his account.

Affidavits signed by Ronald Corgnale, the store manager, allege that Sturgill cashed a $10 check on Nov. 22 and another $10 check on Nov. 25. Both were drawn on the Farmers National Bank of Salem, the affidavits allege.

Sturgill requested a continuance to allow him to obtain counsel. The court set a $500 bond to cover both cases.

Sturgill also told the court he wished to "talk to the store manager" about restitution.

"That won't do you any good," the court replied. "We do not hand out medals to people convicted of writing bad checks."

Lawyers Ask Meeting

Midland Council Plans Talk On Police Dispute

A move for negotiation of a new police duty schedule for meeting or arbitration of the issue was submitted by attorneys for the police at a meeting of Midland Council Wednesday night.

Council also appointed Ed Cilli, assistant borough secretary, to a new post of executive supervisor of services, discussed a possible solution to industrial noise from Crucible Steel Co. and opened bids for two new police cruisers.

A request for a meeting to discuss the police situation was received from the law firm of Roth and Herskovitz of Aliquippa, representing officers on the police force dissatisfied with a new work schedule established by Mayor Eli Corak and Police Chief Vincent D'Itri earlier this month.

The law firm advised Council the dissident police officers are entitled to a meeting with officials on the matter under a new law approved by the General Assembly in 1968. It was pointed out the police may seek arbitration of the problem under the new legislation.

Councilman Ray Presutti suggested a meeting be held with the police Feb. 12 prior to the regular Council meeting, and the proposal was approved.

—:—

NINE POLICE officers appeared before Council Jan. 8 to protest the new duty schedule, which was later revised somewhat.

Council formally approved a resolution to create the post of executive supervisor of services, and named Cilli to the post at a salary of $7,400 annually. He will be in charge of employes involved in collection of garbage and refuse and will have other duties assigned by Council.

Council authorized the firm of Michael Baker Jr. to proceed with updating of the Midland comprehensive plan. With this plan completed, the borough can apply for federal and state aid.

Matt Stegner of the firm, expert on planning, will be in charge. Mayor Corak said without a workable plan, an application for aid would not be considered. The study will cost $11,500.

George Ford, director of community relations at Crucible, said engineers have determined three requirements for curbing the noise of the new oxygen converter. He said when the unit was ordered from the supplier, it was supposed to be workable. The company is now trying to get the supplier to share the high cost of eliminating the noise, he said, adding this could possibly be completed in several months.

He also said engineers are working on the "fly ash" problem, and this should be solved in about three months.

Ford said Crucible realizes its social obligation to the Midland residents.

—:—

MAYOR CORAK asked if the Crucible newspaper, which he termed a "bond" with the people, would be continued. Ford said the Steelman paper which was published at Pittsburgh, would be discontinued, but the local company paper, published every month, would again be mailed on March 1. He said this issue will help explain the reorganization and the relations between the Colt offices in New York and Midland.

He said the acquisition of Crucible is the first of its kind for Colt. Crucible is the only steel mill of the 12 companies Colt controls, and it has doubled its size. He said he hopes Colt officials become better acquainted with the plant and community of Midland. Ford commented there is no staff in Pittsburgh, all corporate contact is made between Midland and New York.

In other business, Council passed a resolution creating an Adult Recreational Council. The Council will consist of nine members representing local organizations. They will elect a secretary and chairman. The group will supervise and maintain the Youth Center.

Council refused a request from the Pennsylvania Department of Highways for the borough to participate in the resurfacing of Route 68 from the west end of Midland through Industry. This is the first time the borough has received such a request, and Councilmen said since Route 68 is a state highway, the state should be responsible.

—:—

A REQUEST for the Midland Volunteer Fire Department to help at intersections in the annual "Mothers March" of the March of Dimes was granted.

Mayor Corak asked Council members to support legislation which would be brought before the Pennsylvania Finance Committee meeting in Harrisburg by the Pennsylvania Boroughs Association Jan. 30-31 if they attend.

This legislation would put a ceiling on what arbitrators can award. The mayor said at times arbitrators get "carried away" by sob stories and the awards mandate tax increases.

Councilman William Shovlin reported meetings are being planned with local directors to set up a system so Midland will have a doctor on duty on Thursdays. He also asked that a letter be sent to the Beaver County Medical Society for help in acquiring another doctor for Midland.

Charles Loll, certified public accountant, was hired to audit the tax books.

Council authorized the demolition of several sub standard buildings purchased recently by the Midland Municipal Authority. Councilman Joseph Hibbard said the buildings are in dangerous condition and should be torn down.

Mayor Corak asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to Charles R. Schmitt of Midland, who has retired from Crucible and is moving from the area. He said he was active in community life, serving on various committees and will be a great loss to the community.

The bids for the two new 8-cylinder police cars include Migliore Ford, $3,200 for each car including a $570 allowance for each of the old cars and a $150 allowance for tax exemption, with an alternate bid of $388 for air conditioning in one car; Sid Riezner Chevrolet and Oldsmobile, $3,280 for each car including a $500 allowance on the old cars, $151.50 for tax exemption and $350 for air conditioning; Midland Auto Sales, $3,100 for one car, including $656 allowance and $140 tax exemption and a $375 bid on the air conditioner. The other bid from Midland Auto Sales was $3,256 with a $500 allowance for the old car and $140 tax exemption. The bids were turned over to the secretary, solicitor and engineers for action.

Hearings Set For 2 Facing Entry Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set preliminary hearings next Wednesday morning for two men charged with an early morning burglary Monday at an East End service station.

The judge continued the appearance bonds of Robert Prescott, 23, of 212 Jackson St. and Robert Savors, 38, of Chester RD 1, named in affidavits signed by Patrolmen Charles Coen and Bruce Conkle that allege they took $69 from a rifled cash register in Pillar's Gulf Station on Pennsylvania Ave. near Boyce St., operated by James Pillar.

Prescott is represented by William Telzrow, Wellsville attorney. Bernard Fineman of East Liverpool is counsel for Savors. The attorneys requested continuances when their clients were taken before the court today. No pleas were entered.

Police said they were notified by phone of an apparent burglary at 1:21 a. m. Monday and the two suspects were in custody seven minutes later. Officers said two doors at the service station were found unlocked. They said a cash register had been moved to the back room of the station and rifled of $55 in bills and $14.76 in change.

When Prescott and Savors were found in an auto at Pennsylvania and Maple St., approximately $69 was found on the floor of the car, police said.

According to latest measurements, the earth is between two and five billion years old.

Preparations Launched For 2nd Pottery Festival

Preliminary planning for the second annual Tri-State Pottery Festival in East Liverpool was launched during a dinner meeting of the festival association Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

H. J. English was elected president of the recently Ohio-chartered association following selection of trustees for the organization.

English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, served as chairman for the organization which sponsored the first festival in 1968.

—:—

TRUSTEES elected are Audley Elliott, George Barbaree, John Starkey, English, E. R. Chandler, Thomas Phillips, Mrs. James Locke, Mrs. Helen Moore and Mrs. Geraldine Reed. Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr. is statutory agent.

Barbaree was elected vice president, Chandler secretary and Starkey treasurer.

The festival, which will feature pottery displays and crafts, special entertainment, booths and concessions and tours of potteries, is scheduled for June 19-21.

English suggested the organizations which undertook special projects last year accept the same responsibilities for 1969.

These include the City Federation of Women's Clubs, displays; Business and Professional Women,, program booklet; Quota Club, souvenirs; Trades and Labor Council and the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, crafts and special events; Jaycees, booths and concessions, and Senior Citizens, special Senior Citizens Day.

Discussion was held on various publicity projects, including a contest for selection of a theme for the festival.

A festival chairman is to be appointed by the trustees within a few weeks, English said.

Hanoverton Man To Face Charge Of Check Fraud

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a preliminary hearing Tuesday for a man identified as James Sturgill of Lisbon Rd., Hanoverton, accused of cashing two checks in November at the Loblaw Market on Dresden Ave. when he did not have sufficient funds on deposit in his account.

Affidavits signed by Ronald Corgnale, the store manager, allege that Sturgill cashed a $10 check on Nov. 22 and another $10 check on Nov. 25. Both were drawn on the Farmers National Bank of Salem, the affidavits allege.

Sturgill requested a continuance to allow him to obtain counsel. The court set a $500 bond to cover both cases.

Sturgill also told the court he wished to "talk to the store manager" about restitution.

"That won't do you any good," the court replied. "We do not hand out medals to people convicted of writing bad checks."

U.S. Army Autopsy

Medical Errors By Cong Blamed In Death Of GI

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Army autopsy blames medical bumblings by the Viet Cong for the death of an American soldier nearly three weeks after the enemy freed him, it has been learned.

Spec. 4 James W. Brigham Jr. one of three American soldiers released by the Vietcong to an American military team on New Year's Day, died at the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital Jan. 17.

The Viet Cong radio has claimed that the 21-year-old Brigham, of Ocala, Fla., was "assassinated because the United States did not want him to tell the truth about the Vietnam war to the Negro population."

Brigham was reported to have been given head surgery for a battle wound during the three months he was held by the Viet Cong and the autopsy report indicated the operation was botched.

A summary of Brigham's case, made available by the Army, said the soldier entered the hospital Jan. 4, the day he landed here from Vietnam, and was found to be suffering from partial blindness "and a persistent draining wound from the head."

Army doctors operated on Brigham Jan. 9 and attempted to stem infection, but he died last Friday.

"The post-mortum examination revealed the cause of death to be widespread infected brain tissue; second, to inefficient Debridement of the wound after initial injury while the patient was still in captivity," the Army said when asked for a report.

A spokesman said "Debridement" means removal of damaged and infected tissue.

Officers said the Army originally wanted to avoid accusing the Viet Cong for Brigham's death for fear of reprisal against Americans still held captive.

Argue For Retention

However, they indicated that the Viet Cong effort to picture Brigham's death as a U.S. "assassination" changed their minds.

The Army report said examination of Brigham after his arrival here "revealed that visual impairment was due to a loss of part of the brain" and persistent drainage from an open wound.

The returned GI was operated on after diagnostic studies probed the extent of damage, the Army said.

Doctors found hair deep in the wound and serious inflamation, requiring more efforts at removal of infected tissue.

Brigham responded slowly after the operation, the Army report said, and he suffered "convulsive seizures" four days before he lapsed into unconsciousness and died.

Army officials here said they do not know if military authorities in South Vietnam were aware of the extent of Brigham's wound when he was released Jan. 1 in a patty field near the Cambodian border. Spec. 4 Thomas N. Jones of Lynnville, Ind., and Pfc. Donald G. Smith of Akron, Pa., also were freed at that time.

In Plans Of McNamara

Clifford Ordered Changes In Phasing Out Bombers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before he left office, former Defense Secretary Clark M. Clifford ordered major changes in earlier plans by his predecessor, Robert S. McNamara, to phase out hundreds of nuclear bombers.

Under the revisions ordered by Clifford, who left office Monday with the rest of the Johnson administration, the Air Force will:

—Retain the 80 B58 Hustler supersonic strategic bombers which McNamara ticketed for mothballs begnning in mid-1970.

—Keep for a few years longer three older B52 squadrons, over 45 planes in all, part of 210 early B52 C through F models which McNamara planned to sideline completely by mid-1973.

—Cut approved production of the incoming swing-wing FB111 nuclear bombers from 210 to around 120. The FB111 is an offshoot of McNamara's controversial TFX design

Pentagon sources say Gen John P. McConnell, Air Force chief of staff, will make a case before new Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird for retaining a dozen or so other older B52 bomber squadrons that are destined for oblivion under the old McNamara policy.

The revisions are being greeted as good news by Air Force bomber advocates who have contended the McNamara regime was basing too much of the nation's security on unmanned long-range missiles.

The Air Force once had over 600 intercontinental range strategic bombers but is now down to 445. Hundreds of B47 medium bombers also were phased out early in the McNamara years.

"This is a victory, however minor," one Air Force officer who is familiar with the strategic bomber program, commented. "We've got our foot in the door."

Cut FB111 Bombers

In arguing for retention of the B52, Air Force officials maintained that the older C through F models should be held as a reserve conventional bombing capability for other Vietnam-type wars in the future.

The slash in planned FB111 production represents further erosion of the McNamara plan to turn out one basic plane design which could meet the needs of the services.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Give Clothes Even Shake

DEAR HELOISE: My! Such fussing and fuming over drying clothes in a dryer. . .

If everyone would stop being so lazy — they would have the problem solved.

Heloise

Shaking each garment individually before putting it in the dryer will eliminate nearly all wrinkles.

Also never let clothes stand in the dryer once they are done.

Remove them immediately.

CLAIRE P. DICKEY.

-:-

I totally agree. Just wish I could shake your hand.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I put a few tablespoons of cornmeal in with my prepared pancake mix and what a delightful change!

My husband suggested this when I was short of buckwheat mix one morning.

MAE BECKAM.

DEAR MAE: I tried it and it's great! We visited some friends in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and they made this type hotcake batter for us, and was it a dilly. . .we loved it.

They weren't as soggy as some pancakes are.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep those slick charge plates (and they really are slick when you see how much you have charged at the end of the month) from slipping out of my billfold, I just wrapped a thin piece of plastic from a garment bag around each.

No more fumbling in the bottom of my purse now for that lost card.

MRS. F. H.

DEAR HELOISE: I have found another use for your wonderful nylon net:

When ironing heavily starched clothes you will fine some things on which the starch will cake, or turn white and unsightly.

Take a piece of your lovely net and gently rub the article. Presto, the starch is gone, yet it does not ruin the stiffness you desire.

ROSE.

DEAR HELOISE: Mothers of little boys have probably learned that even if the youngsters have a daily bath they usually leave a high-water mark on the tub.

So try this:

As soon as the water is in the tub, take a bar of soap and run it along the water edge as high as the water will splash! This seems to keep the soil from adhering to the tub and makes it extremely simple to wash the tub afterwards.

MRS. J. McLEARN.

Ladies, I tried it. I used a soft-water bar soap, and as soon as the tub was filled, I gave the bar of soap to my niece so she could use her energy to run it around the bathtub water line. . .

After she had taken her bath, all we did was to take a sponge, run it around where she had marked the soap, and it did a beautiful cleaning job.

It's worth the effort.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently, I noticed that my stainless teel flatware was very dull looking.

The knive appear to have heat mark. The other pieces were just plain dull and icky looking.

Knowing I had nothing to lose. . .I decided to try a vinegar bath for the whole shebang!

I used approximately two cups of vinegar—full strength — in a bowl and soaked the handles of the knives first. I then reversed the knives so the blades would get into the vinegar bath.

Next I dunked all the flatware in detergent suds. Then I used a clear hot water rinse and dried them immediately.

And do you know that every piece shines like new!

Next, I decided to save the vinegar in a spearate bottle labeled "for stainless steel flatware."

W.Va. Senate Eyes Bill On Road Bonds

CHARLESTON, W. La. (AP) — The West Virginia Senate had up for final passage today a House-approved bill to remove the 4½ per cent ceiling on a $20-million package of state road bonds pending for sale this fiscal year.

Acting under $200-million road bond authorization approved in the 1964 election, the 1968 Legislature voted sale of $20 million in bonds this fiscal year.

But when the bonds were put up for sale last November, with interest cost to state limited to 4½ per cent under the 1968 act, the package failed to attract a single bid from the current high interest bond market.

Bonds have not been reoffered, pending legislative action to lift the ceiling.

The House had up for final passage today a bill to delete a requirement in a law governing the operation of the State Police Criminal Identification Bureau which requires that the CIB be in Charleston.

Headquarters for the department will be shifted from the state Capitol to South Charleston when construction of new facilities is completed.

A motion to amend a portion of the bill which would allow release of information from CIB files under certain conditions was defeated Wednesday.

The House also defeated Wednesday a bill that would give landowners the power to arrest persons hunting or fishing on their property without prior consent.

Motorist Uninjured As Auto Hits Boulder

A car operated by a Beaver Falls man received $200 damage in a freak acident on Route 51 in Chippewa Township Wednesday at 8:50 p. m.

Pennsylvania state police at the Chippewa Barracks said the car driven by Thomas W. Miller, 27, struck a huge boulder in the south lane, causing damage to the undercarriage of the car. Miller was not injured.

Protestant Extremists Mar Cardinal's Talk

LONDON (AP) — Protestant extremists repeatedly interrupted a Christian unity service Wednesday night by shouting anti-Vatican slogans during a Roman Catholic cardinal's address to 4,000 persons in St. Paul's Anglican Cathedral.

Outside the cathedral, counter demonstrators pelted Northern Ireland's leading Protestant extremist, the Rev. Ian Paisley, with eggs and tomatoes.

One Irish Protestant, the Rev. Thomas Foster, was charged with "indecent behavior" under a century-old law forbidding interruption of a church service. He was one of a dozen demonstrators—most of them in clerical garb—who were ejected from the service held as part of the worldwide Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

John Cardinal Heenan, head of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Britain, had just been welcomed to the cathedral by the archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Michael Ramsey, when Bible-waving extremists began shouting "No popery here!"

Ushers dashed from pew to pew, hustling demonstrators out of the church as they rose in sequence to rail against the Pope.

Cardinal Heenan, believed to be the first Roman Catholic cardinal ever to appear formally in the 17th century cathedral, won applause from many of his listeners when he said the demonstration showed "the need for the ecumenical movement."

Paisley stayed outside the cathedral and demonstrated with his supporters behind a ring of police guards.

"A grreat Protestant church is being desecrated by a Romanist," Paisley bellowed.

As the counterdemonstrators shouted "Paisley go home" and pelted him, he shouted: "The more of this the better. You see what kind of things papists do."

Paisley flew home to Belfast early today, his coat still stained with egg yolk and tomato.

Liens Filed Against Firm In Weirton Housing Project

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Several liens have been filed against a contracting company headed by a Cleveland man and involved in a stalled $1.9 million housing project for elderly persons in Weirton, W. Va.

West Virginia authorities have identified the man as Dominic E. Bartone, 55, executive vice president and general manager of the Concrete Construction Co., contractors for the project in Weirton.

Bartone, who lost an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court on his three-year jail senence for tax evasion is scheduled to surrender soon to the U. S. marshall in Cleveland.

He is free on $10,000 bond. Bartone was convicted in Miami, Fla., of selling arms to anti-Castro forces in the Dominican Republic and was placed on probation.

He was arrested for arms sales to Honduras in 1962 and received a one-year jail sentence, which he has since served.

Work on the Weirton project was stopped last Nov. 27 when the Western Pennsylvania Bank of Pittsburgh discovered that although work on the 130 units was not nearly completed, expenses totaled $1,050,000 a bank official said.

Bartone's firm was to get $1,499,000 of the total $1.9 million for its part of the development

On Jan. 2 liens were filed in the West Virginia courts against Concrete Construction. Among those filing were:

Weirton Lumber Co. $42,000; Starvaggi Enterprises, $55,000; Morelli Contractors $26,000; and the Weirton Motor Lodge, $4,000 for Bartone's personal lodgings and those of his aides from last March 20 to Dec. 11

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Give Clothes Even Shake

DEAR HELOISE: My! Such fussing and fuming over drying clothes in a dryer. . .

If everyone would stop being so lazy — they would have the problem solved.

Heloise

Shaking each garment individually before putting it in the dryer will eliminate nearly all wrinkles.

Also never let clothes stand in the dryer once they are done.

Remove them immediately.

CLAIRE P. DICKEY.

-:-

I totally agree. Just wish I could shake your hand.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I put a few tablespoons of cornmeal in with my prepared pancake mix and what a delightful change!

My husband suggested this when I was short of buckwheat mix one morning.

MAE BECKAM.

DEAR MAE: I tried it and it's great! We visited some friends in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and they made this type hotcake batter for us, and was it a dilly. . .we loved it.

They weren't as soggy as some pancakes are.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep those slick charge plates (and they really are slick when you see how much you have charged at the end of the month) from slipping out of my billfold, I just wrapped a thin piece of plastic from a garment bag around each.

No more fumbling in the bottom of my purse now for that lost card.

MRS. F. H.

DEAR HELOISE: I have found another use for your wonderful nylon net:

When ironing heavily starched clothes you will fine some things on which the starch will cake, or turn white and unsightly.

Take a piece of your lovely net and gently rub the article. Presto, the starch is gone, yet it does not ruin the stiffness you desire.

ROSE.

So try this:

As soon as the water is in the tub, take a bar of soap and run it along the water edge as high as the water will splash! This seems to keep the soil from adhering to the tub and makes it extremely simple to wash the tub afterwards.

CHARLESTON, W. La. (AP) — The West Virginia Senate had up for final passage today a House-approved bill to remove the 4½ per cent ceiling on a $20-million package of state road bonds pending for sale this fiscal year.

Homestead Measure Offered

Ohio Bill Seeks To End Garnishment Of Wages

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate Wednesday received measures to end employer garnishment of wages and to provide homestead exemptions for retired persons over age 65.

During the eight-minute skeleton session the Senate also received a bill to prevent a guardian from opening his ward's safety deposit box until its contents had been audited.

Charles J. Carney D-33 Mahoning introduced the bill to amend the state's present garnishment law to exclude the wages of laborers and salaries of personnel in public or private employment.

At present, all but 30 per cent of an employe's weekly wages may be garnished.

Carney said in an interview that the easy-credit people "encourage people to go into debt" and then want the state to help them recover payment.

Cites Garishment Laws

He charged that Ohio has the largest percentage of personal bankruptcies per capita in the nation because of the state's garnishment laws.

Ohio ranks second among the states in the number of personal bankruptcy filings. Federal statistics show that 15,899 personal bankruptcies were filed in Ohio during fiscal 1968.

"Wage garnishments are a constant source of friction in labor relations," agreed Carney, regional director for the United Steelworkers of America.

The Ohio Manufacturers' Association and the Ohio AFL-CIO, both of which have complained that Ohio's credit laws are stacked against the consumer, are working to reform the garnishment law.

Thomas R. Johnson, executive director of the OMA, earlier said that OMA members feel they should not "be used as collection agencies for creditors."

Expects Bill To Pass

Carney, who has introduced similar legislation in past sessions, said "there will always be oppsition from credit people," but that he expected his bill to pass this time "if big manufacturers, large unions and the public get behind it."

Carney also introduced a resolution to provide homestead exemptions of $5,000 for retired homeowners over 65.

The resolution would provide an exemption if the property's assessed value was not over $10,000, and if the retired owner lived there over six months of the year.

If the legislature passes the resolution, it will be submitted to a vote of the people at the November 1969 general election.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula R - 29 Stark introduced the bill to protect the rights of a ward by preventing his guardian from opening the ward's safety deposit box unless its contents had been audited and a verified report filed with the probate court.

The House did not meet Wednesday. The Senate convenes at 11 a. m. and the House at 1:30 p. m. today for skeleton sessions. Most legislators are attending a legislative workshop at Burr Oak State Park.

SLEDGE JUMPING is a serious sport that can be dangerous, but these participants show a sense of humor with their getup and rig. They took part in the traditional Gaissach, Germany, woodcutters' sledge jumping tournament.

Red Cross Chapter Given Report On Water Safety

A report on the water safety program for the coming season was presented by Don Eckert during the meeting of directors of the area Red Cross chapter Tuesday night.

Charles Lang, chairman, presided.

Eckert said that the committee will endeavor to promote a more successful program this year than previously. He gave a brief history of the program and outlined its needs for this year.

The Rev. Richard Wallarab, who gave the invocation, reported that 14 tapes and 10 pictures were sent overseas at Christmas through the "Voices from Home" program.

Recognition was given to Eckert, Paul Ward of the Potters Savings and Loan Co. and WOHI for their part in the program.

Miss Peggy Sue Rose again has been selected as a counselor at a Grove City camp and was authorized to attend training sessions in Pittsburgh.

Lang read an article on the role that the Red Cross is playing in Biafra.

Letters were received from a brigadier general and from a private first class for the "ditty bags" which were prepared by the production committee and sent to servicemen in Vietnam at Christmas.

Members of the former Wellsville chapter were welcomed by Lang.

Homestead Measure Offered

Ohio Bill Seeks To End Garnishment Of Wages

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate Wednesday received measures to end employer garnishment of wages and to provide homestead exemptions for retired persons over age 65.

During the eight-minute skeleton session the Senate also received a bill to prevent a guardian from opening his ward's safety deposit box until its contents had been audited.

Charles J. Carney D-33 Mahoning introduced the bill to amend the state's present garnishment law to exclude the wages of laborers and salaries of personnel in public or private employment.

At present, all but 30 per cent of an employe's weekly wages may be garnished.

Carney said in an interview that the easy-credit people "encourage people to go into debt" and then want the state to help them recover payment.

Cites Garishment Laws

He charged that Ohio has the largest percentage of personal bankruptcies per capita in the nation because of the state's garnishment laws.

Ohio ranks second among the states in the number of personal bankruptcy filings. Federal statistics show that 15,899 personal bankruptcies were filed in Ohio during fiscal 1968.

"Wage garnishments are a constant source of friction in labor relations," agreed Carney, regional director for the United Steelworkers of America.

The Ohio Manufacturers' Association and the Ohio AFL-CIO, both of which have complained that Ohio's credit laws are stacked against the consumer, are working to reform the garnishment law.

Thomas R. Johnson, executive director of the OMA, earlier said that OMA members feel they should not "be used as collection agencies for creditors."

Expects Bill To Pass

Carney, who has introduced similar legislation in past sessions, said "there will always be oppsition from credit people," but that he expected his bill to pass this time "if big manufacturers, large unions and the public get behind it."

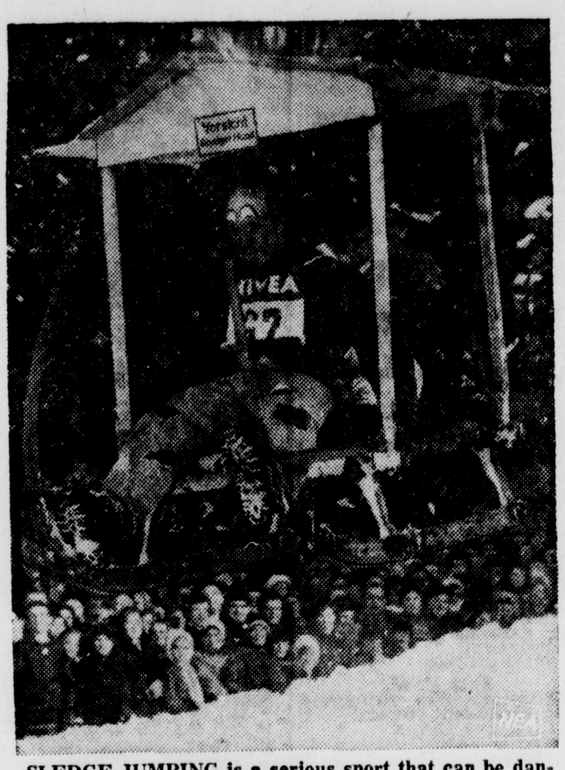

Carney also introduced a resolution to provide homestead exemptions of $5,000 for retired homeowners over 65.

The resolution would provide an exemption if the property's assessed value was not over $10,000, and if the retired owner lived there over six months of the year.

If the legislature passes the resolution, it will be submitted to a vote of the people at the November 1969 general election.

Sen. Ralph S. Regula R - 29 Stark introduced the bill to protect the rights of a ward by preventing his guardian from opening the ward's safety deposit box unless its contents had been audited and a verified report filed with the probate court.

The House did not meet Wednesday. The Senate convenes at 11 a. m. and the House at 1:30 p. m. today for skeleton sessions. Most legislators are attending a legislative workshop at Burr Oak State Park.

SLEDGE JUMPING is a serious sport that can be dangerous, but these participants show a sense of humor with their getup and rig. They took part in the traditional Gaissach, Germany, woodcutters' sledge jumping tournament.

Red Cross Chapter Given Report On Water Safety

A report on the water safety program for the coming season was presented by Don Eckert during the meeting of directors of the area Red Cross chapter Tuesday night.

Charles Lang, chairman, presided.

Eckert said that the committee will endeavor to promote a more successful program this year than previously. He gave a brief history of the program and outlined its needs for this year.

The Rev. Richard Wallarab, who gave the invocation, reported that 14 tapes and 10 pictures were sent overseas at Christmas through the "Voices from Home" program.

Recognition was given to Eckert, Paul Ward of the Potters Savings and Loan Co. and WOHI for their part in the program.

Miss Peggy Sue Rose again has been selected as a counselor at a Grove City camp and was authorized to attend training sessions in Pittsburgh.

Lang read an article on the role that the Red Cross is playing in Biafra.

Letters were received from a brigadier general and from a private first class for the "ditty bags" which were prepared by the production committee and sent to servicemen in Vietnam at Christmas.

Members of the former Wellsville chapter were welcomed by Lang.

The DOCTOR Says

Regulate Your Vitamin Intake

Q—What vitamin or foods can be taken for a defiency in night vision?

A—Vitamin A, which is found abundantly in milk, butter, fortified margarine, eggs liver, kidneys and carrots and other green or yellow vegetables.

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—In a recent column you stated that the daily requirement of vitamin A is 2,500 to 5,000 units. I am taking vitamin capsules that contain 25,000 units each. Could they hurt me?

A—Yes, if they are taken regularly for several months. Such capsules are given to cure a definite vitamin deficiency.

Q—A friend who says she can't afford a balanced diet compensates by taking vitamin and iron pills. Can't these be harmful in time?

A—If the recommended daily requiremenst for vitamin A (see above) and vitamin D (400 units) are not exceeded, there would be no danger of vitamin poisoning. The other vitamins are not stored in the body and can be taken in unlimited amounts. The daily requirement for iron is 0.5 to 1 milligram for men and 0.7 to 2 milligrams for women.

Q—About three years ago I took an overdose of vitamins A and D. It has left me with pains in my bones. What can I do to ease these pains?

A—Bone pains can occur with vitamin A poisoning, less frequently with vitamin D poisoning. The only treatment is prompt withdrawal of the vitamin supplements. Since three years is a long time for the pain to persist, your doctor should determine whether there is any other cause for your present pains. If not, you might try aspirin. If that doesn't help, have your doctor give you one of the other nonhabit-forming pain killers.

Q—Is halibut liver oil a better source of vitamins A and D than cod liver oil?

A—Yes. Each gram of halibut liver oil (U.S. Pharmacopeia) contains 60,000 units of vitamin A and 600 units of vitamin D. Each gram of cod liver oil (USP) contains only 600 and 85 units respectively.

Q—In a recent column you said that amyotrophic lateral sclerosis can be helped by pancreatic supplement. Since vitamin E stimulates the pancreas, wouldn't it work just as well?

A—There is no sound evidence at present that vitamin E will stimulate the pancreas.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Cleveland Man Sought In Second Stab Death

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A 23-year-old Cleveland man already under indictment for stabbing a lawyer at the Cuyahoga County Democratic party's steer roast last September is being sought on a first-degree murder warrant in another stabbing.

Police identified the man Wednesday as Darryl C. Payne and said they also want to question him about the firebombings of a church and two vacant stores on the East Side last Sept. 12.

Payne is accused of the stabbing death of 68-year-old William T. Davis. Police said they believe Davis was killed because he witnessed the firebombings.

6 Tests Shots Are Fired In Judge's Home

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Police fired six test shots Wednesday in the home of Euclid Municipal Judge Robert L. Steele as they continued their investigation into the Jan. 9 slaying of his wife, Marlene.

She was shot to death with a .38-caliber revolver in an upstairs bedroom.

The six test shots were fired with a .38-caliber police special weapon, four normally and two with a silencer on the gun's muzzle. The bullets were fired into a test canister filled with waste material.

Police used sound - testing equipment to register the noise made by the firings but would not comment on the results.

Judge Steele, who found his wife's body, has said the sounds he heard the night of the killing were "pop, pop." He said he was in his sons' bedroom at the time.

In another development in the case, five Euclid residents filed a court petition Wednesday to remove Judge Steele from office. The suit alleges he maintained a court employe, Mrs. Barbara Swartz, for an "illicit, immoral and unlawful purpose . . ."

The petition, filed in Cuyahoga County Probate Court, said the judge's actions constitute misfeasance or malfeasance of office. A hearing is set for Jan. 31.

The DOCTOR Says

Regulate Your Vitamin Intake

Q—What vitamin or foods can be taken for a defiency in night vision?

A—Vitamin A, which is found abundantly in milk, butter, fortified margarine, eggs liver, kidneys and carrots and other green or yellow vegetables.

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—In a recent column you stated that the daily requirement of vitamin A is 2,500 to 5,000 units. I am taking vitamin capsules that contain 25,000 units each. Could they hurt me?

A—Yes, if they are taken regularly for several months. Such capsules are given to cure a definite vitamin deficiency.

Q—A friend who says she can't afford a balanced diet compensates by taking vitamin and iron pills. Can't these be harmful in time?

A—If the recommended daily requiremenst for vitamin A (see above) and vitamin D (400 units) are not exceeded, there would be no danger of vitamin poisoning. The other vitamins are not stored in the body and can be taken in unlimited amounts. The daily requirement for iron is 0.5 to 1 milligram for men and 0.7 to 2 milligrams for women.

Q—About three years ago I took an overdose of vitamins A and D. It has left me with pains in my bones. What can I do to ease these pains?

A—Bone pains can occur with vitamin A poisoning, less frequently with vitamin D poisoning. The only treatment is prompt withdrawal of the vitamin supplements. Since three years is a long time for the pain to persist, your doctor should determine whether there is any other cause for your present pains. If not, you might try aspirin. If that doesn't help, have your doctor give you one of the other nonhabit-forming pain killers.

Q—Is halibut liver oil a better source of vitamins A and D than cod liver oil?

A—Yes. Each gram of halibut liver oil (U.S. Pharmacopeia) contains 60,000 units of vitamin A and 600 units of vitamin D. Each gram of cod liver oil (USP) contains only 600 and 85 units respectively.

Q—In a recent column you said that amyotrophic lateral sclerosis can be helped by pancreatic supplement. Since vitamin E stimulates the pancreas, wouldn't it work just as well?

A—There is no sound evidence at present that vitamin E will stimulate the pancreas.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

ANN LANDERS

Mother's 'Love' Selfish

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I think maybe I can help that lady who gave up her baby for adoption and signed herself "Bitter." She said she cried every night for 10 years bceause the social worker and her minister advised her to give up her child. Now she says it was the biggest mistake of her life.

I am a child who was kept by an unmarried mother and am therefore in a position to know what it's like from the child's point of view.

My life was hell. When I was 6 years old I knew what "bastard" meant. I was left out of things and told to "go home." I was blackballed from a club when I was 15 because they couldn't have a member whose mother was a "miss."

My mother kept saying, "Those people are ignorant. Don't pay any attention to them." And of course she was right, but an adolescent feels more than he reasons, and I suffered in ways that no child should have to suffer.

The emotional damage of being raised by an unmarried mother was enormous. I know she meant well, but I would not do to a child what she did to me. My mother's "love" was, as you put it so well, "selfishness turned inside out."

Don't ever change your stand, Ann. You are right. — OTHER SIDE.

Dear Side: Thanks for the assist. I intend to stay with this point of view, in spite of the criticism of those who think I'm heartless and unfeeling.

Eye Openers

Dear Ann: I just finished reading the letter signed "Color Us Nauseated."

She was complaining about a couple of lovebirds at the office who were forever pawing and making eyes at each other. When one went to the water cooler, the other followed. They held hands by the pencil sharpener and smooched behind the file cabinet. She shouldn't complain, Ann. At least those lovebirds are a girl and a fella. There are two guys in our office who like each other and it's more than we can stand.

I hope you'll print this letter so the gal who wrote will see it. Some people don't know when they're well off. If she'll send us her couple, we'll send her ours. — CHICAGO.

-:-

Dear Chicago: To each his own. Or HER own. Or ITS own. Or — oh well — thanks for writing.

Pound Foolish

Dear Ann: All of us have seen ourselves in your column at one time or another. Please say something about people who are dieting. Maybe they'll recognize themselves and stop boring all their friends with what they're eating, what they're not eating, and how they're starving to death.

In the past two days I've had my ear talked off by five friends who insist on filling me in on all the tiresome details — pounds lost, inches off — and even the menus.

I couldn't care less. Print my letter, Ann. It will be your good deed for the day. — FED UP ON THE UNDERFED.

-:-

Dear Fed: Thanks for putting my words in your mouth. Bless you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Mercury Rises; Sweeper Works

The city's mechanical street sweeper usually is laid up from late fall until early spring because it cannot work in freezing temperatures, but balmy weather the last few days allowed it to clean East End streets Wednesday.

The sweeper is scheduled to clean North Side area streets after the work is completed in East End, if the weather still permits. The North Side sweeping may be done today.

The sweeper sprays water automatically to hold down dust. If the water is not used, the sweeper raises such clouds of dust that householders protest bitterly to City Hall. But if the water is sprayed in freezing weather, it coats pavements with ice that could cause a traffic mishap. Therefore, the sweeper usually is laid up four or five months out of the year.

Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, who has received requests for sweeping of the north side of E. 3rd St., said the work will be done as soon as weather permits. A long stretch of E. 3rd St. usually can be cleaned only after issuance of a special "no parking" order because it is crowded with parked cars bumper-to-bumper for virtually 24 hours a day. It is not part of the semi-monthly sweeping schedule.

Flood Claims 5; 5 Others Feared Dead

OJAI, Calif. (AP) — Along the debris-choked banks of Sespe Creek, the clearing sky disclosed a young boy's body . . . then the bodies of two more . . . then the lifeless forms of a sheriff's deputy and a forest ranger.

It was feared five more would be found dead today.

These were the lost part of six young hikers, their adult leader and three men who tried tragically to rescue them from the rain-flooded area.

A survivor of the group, Scott Eckersley, 28, told authorities that he was washed ashore after a bulldozer stalled as they had attempted to cross the swift stream late Monday.

Elsewhere, as skies dried over California, heavy property and crop damage was counted. Southern California's storm damage was estimated at $3 million.

47 Storm-Related Death

There were 47 storm-related deaths.

The storm turbulence was blamed for light plane crash in which three Texans died on a mountainside near Banning.

At least 29 traffic deaths in southern California were caused by the storm, authorities said.

In the foothills of Angeles National Forest, northeast of Los Angeles, 15 homes were destroyed by floods and rockslides in the Azua-Glendora area.

More than 90 other homes were damaged as overnight floodwaters from mountains denuded by a 19,000-acre brush fire last year sent muck and boulders crashing through a housing tract. Several were filled with mud six feet deep. Fifteen homes were evacuated.

Gymnasium Wrecked

A mud flow wrecked the Azusa-Pacific Collge gymnasium, causing $100,000 damage, and hundreds of cars were partly buried att imes.

The damage in Glendora-Azusa was expected to exceed $1 millon. In San Luis Obispo County, officials said flood waters caused $2 million damage.

A 70-year-old Guadalupe cypress tree which stood on grounds of Pomona's Post Office was felled by winds.

In Tulare County, a sheriff's deputy found Ronald E. Balster, 23, his wife Ellen and their two young sons near the Kern River where they had been trapped since their car became stuck in heavy snow Saturday. All were in good condition.

ANN LANDERS

Mother's 'Love' Selfish

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I think maybe I can help that lady who gave up her baby for adoption and signed herself "Bitter." She said she cried every night for 10 years bceause the social worker and her minister advised her to give up her child. Now she says it was the biggest mistake of her life.

I am a child who was kept by an unmarried mother and am therefore in a position to know what it's like from the child's point of view.

My life was hell. When I was 6 years old I knew what "bastard" meant. I was left out of things and told to "go home." I was blackballed from a club when I was 15 because they couldn't have a member whose mother was a "miss."

My mother kept saying, "Those people are ignorant. Don't pay any attention to them." And of course she was right, but an adolescent feels more than he reasons, and I suffered in ways that no child should have to suffer.

The emotional damage of being raised by an unmarried mother was enormous. I know she meant well, but I would not do to a child what she did to me. My mother's "love" was, as you put it so well, "selfishness turned inside out."

Don't ever change your stand, Ann. You are right. — OTHER SIDE.

Dear Side: Thanks for the assist. I intend to stay with this point of view, in spite of the criticism of those who think I'm heartless and unfeeling.

Eye Openers

Dear Ann: I just finished reading the letter signed "Color Us Nauseated."

She was complaining about a couple of lovebirds at the office who were forever pawing and making eyes at each other. When one went to the water cooler, the other followed. They held hands by the pencil sharpener and smooched behind the file cabinet. She shouldn't complain, Ann. At least those lovebirds are a girl and a fella. There are two guys in our office who like each other and it's more than we can stand.

I hope you'll print this letter so the gal who wrote will see it. Some people don't know when they're well off. If she'll send us her couple, we'll send her ours. — CHICAGO.

-:-

Dear Chicago: To each his own. Or HER own. Or ITS own. Or — oh well — thanks for writing.

Pound Foolish

Dear Ann: All of us have seen ourselves in your column at one time or another. Please say something about people who are dieting. Maybe they'll recognize themselves and stop boring all their friends with what they're eating, what they're not eating, and how they're starving to death.

In the past two days I've had my ear talked off by five friends who insist on filling me in on all the tiresome details — pounds lost, inches off — and even the menus.

I couldn't care less. Print my letter, Ann. It will be your good deed for the day. — FED UP ON THE UNDERFED.

-:-

Dear Fed: Thanks for putting my words in your mouth. Bless you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Mercury Rises; Sweeper Works

The city's mechanical street sweeper usually is laid up from late fall until early spring because it cannot work in freezing temperatures, but balmy weather the last few days allowed it to clean East End streets Wednesday.

The sweeper is scheduled to clean North Side area streets after the work is completed in East End, if the weather still permits. The North Side sweeping may be done today.

The sweeper sprays water automatically to hold down dust. If the water is not used, the sweeper raises such clouds of dust that householders protest bitterly to City Hall. But if the water is sprayed in freezing weather, it coats pavements with ice that could cause a traffic mishap. Therefore, the sweeper usually is laid up four or five months out of the year.

Gosney Attacks State Group For County Tax Hike

COLUMBIANA — The Ohio Tax Commission has been attacked by Don R. Gosney, Democratic chairman, for raising real estate taxes in Columbiana County.

Speaking at a meeting of Democratic city chairmen here Wednesday night, Gosney said that many blame the county auditor, the treasurer and the county commissioners for reappraisals and tax boosts, when actually the state tax board at Columbus is responsible.

Gosney also assailed the administration at Columbus legislation permitting county commissioners to pass permissive taxes, declaring "this is passing the buck."

Gosney conceded that counties need revenue, but said the state legislature should do the job instead of pushing it onto the counties.

"Why not a $10 head tax on people who do not vote" Gosney asked, pointing out that such action should bring a good turnout on the polls on Election Day.

The city chairmen discussed filling all slates for village and city offices.

Articles Taken At Area Church

ROGERS — The theft of $247 worth of equipment from the Lakemont Church of Christ was reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday noon by Mrs. Norma Holtom, church secretary, who discovered the burglary.

She said the theft occurred between 2:30 p. m. Tuesday and 10 a. m. yesterday.

Taken were an electric typewriter, a filmstrip projector, a four-speed phonograph and a 40-by-40-inch movie screen. All were in the pastor's study.

Sheriff's Deputy Howard Gray said the intruder evidently gained entrance by using a blade to force a lock on the east side of the building. The church is on the east side of Route 7 between Rogers and East Fairfield.

"I enthusiastically accept the invitation to play in Cincinnati and hope this will be the start of an annual rivalry that will stimulate even further the interest in professional football in our state."

Modell fired Brown as coach of the Browns following the 1962 season.

Denny McLain Named Male Athlete Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny McLain, the flamboyant Detroit pitcher who is equally at home standing on a mound or sitting at an organ, was named today Male Athlete of the Year in the 38th annual Associated Press poll.

Continuing recent domination by baseball players of the year-end award, McLain became the fourth in succession and the seventh in the last eight polls to find himself sitting on top of the sports world.

In those eight years only Don Schollander, the swimming star of America's 1964 Olympic team, has managed to break baseball's hold on the award.

But no Olympian from the 1968 U.S. team or such an outstanding college football player as O.J. Simpson, the Heisman Trophy winner from Southern California, was able to overshadow McLain's exploits both on and off the field during the 1968 season.

For the 24-year-old right-hander conducted a delicate balancing act during the entire season, pitching baseballs with one hand and playing the organ with two. He received acclaim for the former, notoriety for the latter and money for both.

And, when the season had ended, McLain had posted 31 victories—becoming the first pitcher to reach the 30-victory plateau since Dizzy Dean in 1934—and was on his way to a Las Vegas opening dressed in mink.

In the balloting by sports writers and broadcasters, McLain was rewarded with 108 first-place votes and amassed a total of 517 points on the basis of three points for first place, two for second and one for third.

Only three other athletes received more than 200 points—Simpson, pitcher Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals and quarterback Earl Morrall of the Baltimore Colts, the only pro football player able to crack the Top Ten.

The poll, however, was taken before the Super Bowl game, which will become a part of the 1969 voting, and therefore does not reflect the stunning upset pulled off by quarterback Joe Namath in leading the New York Jets to a 16-7 victory over the Colts.

Simpson, the workhorse running back who almost certainly will be selected by the Buffalo Bills as the No. 1 pick in next week's pro football draft, was the runner-up in the voting with 64 first and 423 points.

Gibson, despite beating McLain in two World Series confrontations, finished a distant third with 57 firsts and 302 points. Morrall, who led the Colts to the National Football League championship in place of injured Johnny Unitas, received 39 first and 240 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten were dicus thrower Al Oerter, 180 points; long jumper Bob Beamon, 111; decathlon star Bill Toomey, 102; hockey star Gordie Howe, 72; skier Jean Claude Killy, 64, and golfer Billy Casper, 49.

Namath, who led the Jets to the American Football League championship, received four first-place votes and 29 points.

Baseball's domination of the poll began in 1961 with Roger Maris. Maury Wills and Sandy Koufax then made it three in a row for the sport before Schollander broke the hold. Koufax, Frank Robinson, Carl Yastrzemski and McLain now have made baseball the first sport to ever have four consecutive winners.

Astros Trade Staub For Clendennon, Alou

HOUSTON (AP) — When the Houston Astros finished in the National League cellar last season General Manager H. B. "Spec" Richardson said there were "no untouchables" on the squad.

He proved it Wednesday when he announced that Rusty Staub, the Astros' top hitter, had been traded to the new National League Montreal club for first baseman Donn Clendenn and outfielder Jesus Alou.

Clendenon and Alou were the third and fourth major league players to be acquired in trades by Houston since the end of the 1968 season. Previously acquired were catcher John Edwards from the St. Louis Cardinals and Curt Blefary from the Baltimore Orioles.

Richardson said there could be even more trades.

The popular Staub, one of Houston's first big bonus players in 1961, hit .291 last season. He finished with a .333 average in 1967 after leading the National League for a good portion of the season.

The 24-year-old redhead, who plays both first base and right field, had a .273 lifetime batting average in six seasons.

Alou and Clendenon went to Montreal in the recent expansion draft, Alou from the San Francisco Giants and Clendenon from the Pittsburgh Pirates. Alou, 25, hit .263 with the Giants. Clendenon, 33, hit .257 for the Pirates.

Both Alou and Clendenon have lifetime batting averages of .280, and are right-handed hitters.

The Astros have dealt about 30 players, coming and going, since Richardson took over as general manager late in 1967.

Since October Richardson has dealt away such players as Staub, pitchers Dave Guisti and Mike Cuellar, and third baseman Bob Aspromonte.

Richardson called the Staub trade "the toughest decision since I have been in baseball."

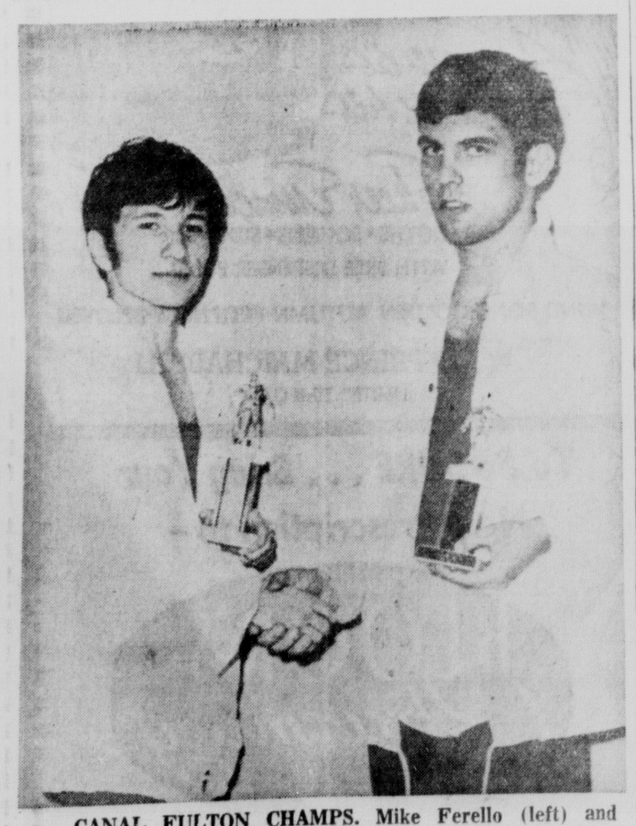

"But when you're in 10th place you got to move," he said.

Walker said, "Huston now has the strongest team in its history."

"We've added speed, power and defense, but have lost one of the finest hitters in baseball," he said.

"We have balanced our right-handed hitting with our left-handed hitting, and have filled one of our outfield spots."

Radioactivity is not magnetic.

Visitors Start Four Juniors

BY TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The East Liverpool Potters, sporting an 11-1 record good for a ranking of 12th in the state, play only one game this weekend, hosting Steubenville at the new gym Friday evening.

Chuck Watt's Big Red team is not the imposing crew it was a year ago, but past records usually go out the window when East Liverpool and Steubenville get together.

Last year East Liverpool needed a furious fourperiod rally to overcome Big Red 52-47 at the Steubenville Arena.

Steubenville has lost all its starters, through graduation or other routes, and is expected to start four juniors. Big Red is 4-6 on the year, having beaten Canton Lincoln, Toronto, Steubenville Central and Warren Harding, while losing to Weirton twice, Bellaire St. John's, Alliance, Martins Ferry and Warren Western Reserve. East Liverpool, of course, has beaten Central and the two Warren teams. Steubenville is no longer a member of the Big 8, and the league ruled their games would not count this season.

The leading scorer so far has been Gary Repella, a 6-3 junior. Other junior starters are 6-3 Ted Freeman, brother of last year's star Lavert Freeman; 5-9 Charles Wise and 6-1 James King. Ross Mike, 6-5, is the lone senior. Ed McIntrye, 6-3, is the top sub, as Big Red has plenty of height.

Kenny Allen, 6-4, a starter last year, is scholastically ineligible, but will rejoin the team next week.

East Liverpool will start Jerry Christian at center, John Johnson and Rick Steffen at forwards and Bill Montgomery and Dan Cunningham at guards. Steve Douglas is recovered from a minor ankle injury suffered against Steubenville Central and will be the top reserve.

Haywood Overshadowed

Villanova Rips Detroit, Johnny Jones Gets 37

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Guess who won the Spencer Haywood-Howard Porter battle? Johnny Jones, that's who.

A sellout crowd turned out at the Philadelphia Palestra Wednesday night to watch two of the country's most highly touted sophomores—Haywood of Detroit and Porter of Villanova—go at each other.

But when the shooting died down it turned out to be Jones and zones that told the story as Villanova, ranked 11th in The Associated Press college basketball poll, ran away with a 93-71 victory.

Villanova led 46-45 with 15:43 left to play but the Wildcats suddenly went on a 25-5 tear over the next six minutes to wrap things up. Porter had 11 points during that stretch and Jones six.

Jones, a 6-foot-4 senior from Pompano Beach, Fla., finished with 37 points, a career high, 22 of them in the first half, as Villanova ran its record to 12-2. He also had 12 rebounds. Porter added 28 while Olympic hero Haywood, held to 12 points in the first 30 minutes, wound up with 25.

Villanova clamped one of Coach Jack Kraft's patented sagging zones around Haywood—"I'd like to think that our zone had something to do with stopping him," Kraft said—and the Titans were unable to penetrate it with much success.

The only other ranked team to see action was No. 9 La Salle, which turned back upset-minded Pennsyovania 78-64 in the second half of the Palestra twin bill.

The Explorers, 13-1, made 36 of 40 free throws to score a come-from-behind victory over the Ivy Leaguers, who had stunned Villanova last week with a slowdown game.

La Salle ran off 15 straight points in the second half to seal the triumph. Larry Cannon took scoring honors with 21 points, 18 in the second half.

There was only a smattering of major games elsewhere across the nation.

Sophomore Willie Bryant scored a key basket with four minutes left and stole a pass to set up another score second later as Penn State outlasted favored West Virginia 64-62.

Calvin Murphy of Niagara, the nathon's second leading scorer, was held to 22 points, his season's low, but the Purple Eagles got by Buffalo 79-76. Murphy's three free throws, one thanks to a technical foul against Buffalo Coach Len Serfustini—put Niagara ahead to stay 69-68.

Gary Brown's free throw with six seconds left enabled Westminster of Pennsylvania to edge Pitt 65-64. Terry Driscoll's 28 points and 18 rebounds paced Boston College over Seton Hall 84-56 in the Eagles' first game since Coach Bob Cousy announced he would retire at season's end.

Bowling Green trailed Toledo until the final two minutes when Dan McLemore's reound basket and two foul shots by Dick Rudgers gave the Falcons a 64-63 Mid-American Conference victory.

In another Mid-American clash, Western Michigan piled up an 11-point lead and then held off league-leading Miami of Ohio 71-66. Toke Coleman and Bobby Washington scored 21 points apiece as Eastern Kentucky downed Virginia Tech 73-65.

One of the busiest young men around is Terry Lawrence.

Lawrence was graduated from East Liverpool High in 1965, and played basketball here. Currently he is enrolled at Youngstown State and playing in three basketball leagues. He is the top scorer in the intramural league and the Austintown Church League and also plays in the inter-fraternity league.

In addition, Lawrence is sports editor of The Jambar, student newspaper at YSU, and is married to the former Jill Ogilvie.

THE DEAL that sent Walt Bellamy and Howard Komives from the New York Knicks to the Detroit Pistons, for Dave DeBusschere looked like a steal for Detroit, but it has turned out the other way. Without Bellamy, Willis Reed is playing better as a full time center, and DeBusschere and Cazzie Russell (before he was injured) provide the Knicks with two strong cornermen.

With Komives, the Knicks had too many guards, and now Dick Barnett and Walt Frazier are playing more and playing better. Bill Bradley is being used as a sub at forward and guard.

Bellamy has helped the Pistons, who were desperately weak at center, but with Komives, Detroit, now has the backcourt problem that New York alleviated. Dave Bing, Eddie Miles and Jimmy Walker, along with Komives, make too many good guards to give all enough playing time.

OF THE FRONT-OFFICE personnel working under Charley Finley, 130 have either quit or been fired during the past six years. Most people in the front office of Oakland A's have no baseball experience.

DR. J. PHILLIP Davidson, a basketball official from Youngstown, has been selected to work the World Cup Basketball Championships in Macom, Ga., this weekend. Dr. Davidson officiated the East Liverpool at Warren Western Reserve and the Wellsville at Salem games among others in the area this year.

TED HOFFMAN, who set the Columbiana County two-mile record while on the East Liverpool High track team last spring, is now running for the Kent State freshmen. Hoffman won the two-mile race at the Pitt Field House Saturday, turning in a 9:59.2 clocking.

Yogi Opinions Differ, Nuzzo Picks 4 Upsets

There were a few more varied opinions among the Review Cage Yogis this week, after last week's togetherness produced disastrous results

Five games are picked unanimously, with everyone taking East Liverpool over Steubenville, Oak Glen over Beaver Local, Poland over Leetonia, United over Greenford and United over Stanton.

Rose Nuzzo, who is in the minority in four cases, is alone in selecting Jefferson Union over Wellsville She teams with Turk Pierce in taking Midland over Monaca, teams with Lorin Howard in taking Lisbon over East Palestine, and sides with Bob Shaffer in taking Crestview over North Lima. Howard and Shaffer go with East Palestine over Carrollton.

Bob Duffy, Pete Weaver, Chuck Campbell and Bill Crooks form the consensus.

Fight Results

NEW YORK—Bob Foster, 171½, Washington, D.C., stopped Frank De Paula, 173, Jersey City, N.J., 1. Foster retained light heavyweight title.

TOKYO — Larry Flaviano, 139½, Philippines, knocked out Shigeru Ogilhara, 140, Jana, 12.

BEAUMONT, Tex.—Paul Patin, 165, Beaumont, outpointed Al Villafarra, 170, New Orleans, 10.

Villanova led 46-45 with 15:43 left to play but the Wildcats suddenly went on a 25-5 tear over the next six minutes to wrap things up. Porter had 11 points during that stretch and Jones six.

Jones, a 6-foot-4 senior from Pompano Beach, Fla., finished with 37 points, a career high, 22 of them in the first half, as Villanova ran its record to 12-2. He also had 12 rebounds. Porter added 28 while Olympic hero Haywood, held to 12 points in the first 30 minutes, wound up with 25.

Villanova clamped one of Coach Jack Kraft's patented sagging zones around Haywood—"I'd like to think that our zone had something to do with stopping him," Kraft said—and the Titans were unable to penetrate it with much success.

The only other ranked team to see action was No. 9 La Salle, which turned back upset-minded Pennsyovania 78-64 in the second half of the Palestra twin bill.

The Explorers, 13-1, made 36 of 40 free throws to score a come-from-behind victory over the Ivy Leaguers, who had stunned Villanova last week with a slowdown game.

La Salle ran off 15 straight points in the second half to seal the triumph. Larry Cannon took scoring honors with 21 points, 18 in the second half.

There was only a smattering of major games elsewhere across the nation.

Sophomore Willie Bryant scored a key basket with four minutes left and stole a pass to set up another score second later as Penn State outlasted favored West Virginia 64-62.

Calvin Murphy of Niagara, the nation's second leading scorer, was held to 22 points, his season's low, but the Purple Eagles got by Buffalo 79-76. Murphy's three free throws, one thanks to a technical foul against Buffalo Coach Len Serfustini—put Niagara ahead to stay 69-68.

Gary Brown's free throw with six seconds left enabled Westminster of Pennsylvania to edge Pitt 65-64. Terry Driscoll's 28 points and 18 rebounds paced Boston College over Seton Hall 84-56 in the Eagles' first game since Coach Bob Cousy announced he would retire at season's end.

Bowling Green trailed Toledo until the final two minutes when Dan McLemore's reound basket and two foul shots by Dick Rudgers gave the Falcons a 64-63 Mid-American Conference victory.

In another Mid-American clash, Western Michigan piled up an 11-point lead and then held off league-leading Miami of Ohio 71-66. Toke Coleman and Bobby Washington scored 21 points apiece as Eastern Kentucky downed Virginia Tech 73-65.

Sports Whirled

One of the busiest young men around is Terry Lawrence.

Lawrence was graduated from East Liverpool High in 1965, and played basketball here. Currently he is enrolled at Youngstown State and playing in three basketball leagues. He is the top scorer in the intramural league and the Austintown Church League and also plays in the inter-fraternity league.

In addition, Lawrence is sports editor of The Jambar, student newspaper at YSU, and is married to the former Jill Ogilvie.

THE DEAL that sent Walt Bellamy and Howard Komives from the New York Knicks to the Detroit Pistons, for Dave DeBusschere looked like a steal for Detroit, but it has turned out the other way. Without Bellamy, Willis Reed is playing better as a full time center, and DeBusschere and Cazzie Russell (before he was injured) provide the Knicks with two strong cornermen.

With Komives, the Knicks had too many guards, and now Dick Barnett and Walt Frazier are playing more and playing better. Bill Bradley is being used as a sub at forward and guard.

Bellamy has helped the Pistons, who were desperately weak at center, but with Komives, Detroit, now has the backcourt problem that New York alleviated. Dave Bing, Eddie Miles and Jimmy Walker, along with Komives, make too many good guards to give all enough playing time.

OF THE FRONT-OFFICE personnel working under Charley Finley, 130 have either quit or been fired during the past six years. Most people in the front office of Oakland A's have no baseball experience.

DR. J. PHILLIP Davidson, a basketball official from Youngstown, has been selected to work the World Cup Basketball Championships in Macom, Ga., this weekend. Dr. Davidson officiated the East Liverpool at Warren Western Reserve and the Wellsville at Salem games among others in the area this year.

TED HOFFMAN, who set the Columbiana County two-mile record while on the East Liverpool High track team last spring, is now running for the Kent State freshmen. Hoffman won the two-mile race at the Pitt Field House Saturday, turning in a 9:59.2 clocking.

Yogi Opinions Differ, Nuzzo Picks 4 Upsets

There were a few more varied opinions among the Review Cage Yogis this week, after last week's togetherness produced disastrous results

Five games are picked unanimously, with everyone taking East Liverpool over Steubenville, Oak Glen over Beaver Local, Poland over Leetonia, United over Greenford and United over Stanton.

Rose Nuzzo, who is in the minority in four cases, is alone in selecting Jefferson Union over Wellsville She teams with Turk Pierce in taking Midland over Monaca, teams with Lorin Howard in taking Lisbon over East Palestine, and sides with Bob Shaffer in taking Crestview over North Lima. Howard and Shaffer go with East Palestine over Carrollton.

Bob Duffy, Pete Weaver, Chuck Campbell and Bill Crooks form the consensus.

Gymnasts To Open Tonight On Road

For the first time this year East Liverpool High will have a varsity gymnastics team.

Gymnastics operated as a club at the school under Norm Six for several years, and this year's coach, Denny Burke, is an alumnus of that club. Burke, an outstanding football player at Baldwin - Wallace, participated in invitational gymnastics meets there, as the Yellowjackets had no organized team.

The Potters have two matches lined up, at Cuyahoga Falls tonight and a return match with Cuyahoga Falls here Friday, Jan. 31.

There are eight events for boys in a dual meet, the long horse (vaulting), horizontal bar, still rings, parallel bars, free exercise, tumbling, trampoline and side horse. Normally there are three boys for each event, but Burke has a small squad and may not have that many entrants. Boys out for the team are senior co-captain Tom Gooding, juniors Bob Stoddard and Rick Schultz, sophomore Dave Rogers and freshmen Stanley Shroub and Larry Becker. Junior Jim McKinnon is also out, but is injured at present. Burke says the boys have not yet developed specialties and all will try several events.

The girls' events in a dual match are the uneven parallel bars, the balance beam, the free exercise and the side horse vault. Special events and tumbling and the trampoline.

Senior co - captain of the girls is Marylee Stroub, while other seniors are Susan Nusser, Roxie Brewer and the injured Peggy Hoffman. Juniors are Janet Chanels, Betsy Horton and Linda Sheets; Roslyn Christian is the only sophomore; and freshmen are Shirley Wyche, Sharon Burke and Jackie Chavis.

Retains Lights-Heavy Title

Foster Whips DePaula On First-Round TKO

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Bob Foster said it wasn't his easiest fight. But his first-round technical knockout of outmatched Frankie De Paula in a title defense at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night has to rate high up on any fighter's soft touch list.

It took the stork-legged, 6-foot-3½ champ from Washington, D.C., just 2 minutes, 17 seconds to drop the 5-8½ challenger from Jersey City, N.J., on the canvas three times. Under New York's three knockdowns in one round rule, the fight was automatically over for the 5-1 underdog.

In that brief period of time, Foster, who once fought for $23 and quit the ring in disgust when he couldn't get any fights, earned about $75,000 from the gross gate of $189,129 contributed by 16,129 fans and the television.

Most of the fans came from New Jersey to root for the crude but hard-hitting night club bouncer. Frankie at least earned about $37,500 to make up for his ruffled feelings.

Foster, winner of 13 straight including 12 knockouts, and his manager, Mushky Salow, plan today to go over a stack of offers for title defenses.

Salow said he had offers totalling more than $300,000 for defenses against Gregorio Peralta in Argentina; Peiro Del Papa in Italy; Bob Dunlap in Australia; Yvan Preberg in Yugoslavia, and Jose Torres in Puerto Rico.

The Garden offered a shot at the winner of the heavyweight fight here Feb. 3 between George Chuvalo and Buster Mathis, but Salow said "we'll take Joe Frazier or Jimmy Ellis with pleasure."

Frazier, of Philadelphia, and Ellis, of Louisville, both hold a piece of the disputed heavyweight title.

De Paula gave the partisan crowd one brief monent of hope early in the first round when he had the champ on the deck. Foster went down from a left to the body but it looked more like a slip since the blow had little steam behind it.

But referee Johnny LoBianco gave the 30-year-old champ the mandatory eight-count.

"I told the referee that it was a slip and I got mad," said Foster.

Just a few seconds later Frankie went down for the first time. Foster said he set up his foe with a jab and a right uppercut ("my best punch") and dropped him with a hook and a right.

"After that, I knew I had him," said Foster.

The next two knockdowns quickly followed, the second from a hook and right to the head and third from a right to the head.

"I wasn't hurt," said De Paula. "My feet went out from under me. A couple of punches stunned me but it was my feet —they just went out from under me.

"They shouldn't have the three-knockdowns rule for title fights. I wasn't hurt."

"I disagree," said Foster. "As the champion, I should be against the rule. But it's a good rule. That's when a guy gets hurt and you can't tell sometimes."

Foster's record now is 38-4, including 28 knockouts. He won the title by knocking out Dick Tiger in the fourth round at the Garden May 24.

Foster weighed 171½ pounds to De Paula's 173.

De Paula now has a 18-7-3 record.

Retirement Hinted By Joe Namath

NEW YORK (AP) — Was the Super Bowl Joe Namath's super farewell to professional football?

The brilliant quarterback, who predicted that the New York Jets would beat the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl and made good his boats, wasn't talking Wednesday—at least on that topic.

"I'm very happy with my life as it is right now," Namath said at a City Hall tribute to the Jets. But he also said:

"Jimmy Brown got out while he was still healthy," referring to the Cleveland Browns' star fullback who retired at the peak of his career to become a movie actor. "You want to make it while you're on top—before you get destroyed."

Namath's knees, operated on several times, are a prime source of concern.

The quarterback currently has several business ventures going, including a New York night spot and string of drive-in restaurants. Namath said he has received a number of other offers—some in the show business field—since the Super Bowl and said he would evaluate the situation after returning from a USO-sponsored tour of Far East military installations. He leaves today.

At the City Hall ceremonies, attended by more than 5,000 persons, Namath paid tribute to his teammates, some 15 of whome were in attendance.

"I've been reading about everything I did," he said, "and I did play good. But if it wasn't for these fellows, where would I be? Everything's a team thing. Believe that, it's a 40-50-man thing."

Baseball Strike Vote Set Feb. 3

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball players will hold a special meeting in New York Monday, Feb. 3, to decide whether to carry out a threatened strike for higher pension benefits.

The players voted 461 to 6 last week to reject the club owners' oifer to increase contributions to the pension fund by $1 million for a total of $5.1 million.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, announced Wednesday the situation had reached an impasse and that several players from each club will attend the Feb. 3 meeting to determine a course of action.

Many top stars, including Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Bob Gibson and Carl Yastrzemski, have endorsed the Association's policy of not signing 1969 contracts until a satisfactory benefit plan is worked out.

Spring training is scheduled to begin next month and indications are that unsigned players will not report unless a pension agreement is reached.

Wittenberg Loses 1st, 35-28 To Ashland

By The Associated Press

Ohio's only undefeated college basketball team, Wittenberg, saw its victory string snapped Wednesday night by Ashland's ball control, and Miami, previously unbeaten in the Mid-American Conference, was bumped by MAC foe Western Michigan.

Ashland, the stingiest team in the nation on defense, dropped Wittenberg 35-28. In the Mid-Am Western downed Miami 71 - 66 while Bowling Green came from behind to nip Toledo 64-63

Ashland, now 15 - 1, took an early 9 - 2 lead then coasted, keeping the ball away from the Tigers, now 10-1. Jim Thrasher scored half of Wittenberg's points—14. John Savage led Ashland with 11.

Western Michigan improved its MAC record to 2-2 behind Gene Ford's 23-point, 15-rebound performance. Miami dropped to 5-1 in the conference but held on to first place. Walt Williams and Tom Slater had 14 points apiece for the Redskins.

Toledo led, at one time by 12 points, until Bowling Green caught fire late in the second half. The Falcons took the lead, 62-61, with 1:52 remaining and iced their second Mid-Am victory in four starts with a pair of foul shots. Jim Penix led BG with 19 points.

Steve Mix sank a goal at the buzzer for the Rockets, giving him 27 points for the game and 1,341 for his three-year career, highest in the school's history. Toledo is 2-3 in the conference.

Wilmington disposed of Mid-Ohio Conference foe Malone 66-55 and Youngstown put away Cleveland State 73 - 68. Ohio Northern put all five startres in double figures for its 84-72 win over Defiance.

Michigan State's Alen Brenner completed his football career in 1968 with 73 passes caught for 1,232 yards.

L. A. Stars Stop Oaks' Win Streak

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Oaks, who waited so long for Rick Barry to join them, did perfectly well without him until George Stone ruined them with a last second perfect shot.

Stone's 22-foot jumper brought the Los Angeles Stars a 123-121 victory over the Oaks at Los Angeles Wednesday night, ending ther 16-game winning streak.

The Oaks, galloping off with the Western Division of the American Basketball Association, were 25-4 when Barry suffered a knee injury Dec. 27.

But without Barry, who had to sit out a year before joining Oakland, the Oaks compiled a 10-0 mark until Stone took a pass with three seconds left while his coach, Bill Sharman, pleaded for a time out, and dropped in the winner. He finished with 31 points.

Denver thus cut Oakland's lead to 10 games with a 124-103 victory over the New York Nets at home.

In other games, Kentucky and Indiana remained deadlocked for second place in the East, 3½ games behind idle Minnesota, as the visiting Colonels nudged Dallas 104-102 and the Pacers routed Miami 140-117 at Indianapolis. New Orleans stopped Houston 121-117 ta Houston in the other game.

Larry Jones hit all but two of his season high 40 points in the first three periods when Denver took a decisive lead.

Louie Dampier's three-point basket with 13 seconds left carried Kentucky to victory. Teammate Gene Moore had 24 points, but John Beasley of Dallas had 34.

Indiana scored 45 points in the second period for a 73-47 halftime lead that settled its triumph. The Pacers got 24 points each from Mel Daniels and Jay Miller.

Late free throws by James Jones, who totaled 26 points offset a 43-point performance by Willie Somerset and lifted New Orleans past Houston.

76ers Down N.Y. Knicks In Overtime

By The Associated Press

The New York Knickerbockers got along without Cazzie Russell longer than expected, but they never could find a way to do without Philadelphia's blazing Billy Cunningham.

Cunningham drilled in 44 points—his career high in the National Basketball Association—as the 76ers overcame a 17-point second half deficit and edged the Knicks 140-37 in double overtime Wednesday night.

New York, playing without scoring ace Russell, who broke an ankle Tuesday night against Seattle, led from the opening minute until Hal Greer's jump shot with two seconds remaining in regulation play pulled the 76ers even at 118-118.

Willis Reed, who led Knick scorers with 37 points, sent the game into the second overtime with a free throw that knotted it 128-128. But the Knicks then ran out of steam as Cunningham sparked the 76ers' decisive spurt.

The victory lifted the 76ers within three games of Baltimore's Eastern Division leaders, who bowed to Seattle 98-94. Chicago stunned Boston 95-94, Detroit nipped Los Angeles 116-115 and Atlanta whipped Phoenix 125-107 in other games.

Cunningham triggered a late Philadelphia rally that closed the Knicks' 69-52 third quarter lead to 118-114 with 22 seconds to go in the fourth period. Chet Walker drove for a layup, cutting the deficit to two points, then stole a long New York pass, setting up Greer's tying jumper.

After a ragged first overtime, the Knicks grabbed a three-point edge, only to fold as Greer Cunningham and Walker ignited the winning burst.

Seattle, which had lost five in a row and 18 of its previous starts, snapped the Bullets' five-game winning streak as Lennie Wilkens dropped in five key points in the final 1½ minutes. Wilkens finished with 22 points, two more than teammate Bob Rule. Kevin Loughery paced Baltimore with 27.

Gymnasts To Open Tonight On Road

For the first time this year East Liverpool High will have a varsity gymnastics team.

Gymnastics operated as a club at the school under Norm Six for several years, and this year's coach, Denny Burke, is an alumnus of that club. Burke, an outstanding football player at Baldwin - Wallace, participated in invitational gymnastics meets there, as the Yellowjackets had no organized team.

The Potters have two matches lined up, at Cuyahoga Falls tonight and a return match with Cuyahoga Falls here Friday, Jan. 31.

There are eight events for boys in a dual meet, the long horse (vaulting), horizontal bar, still rings, parallel bars, free exercise, tumbling, trampoline and side horse. Normally there are three boys for each event, but Burke has a small squad and may not have that many entrants. Boys out for the team are senior co-captain Tom Gooding, juniors Bob Stoddard and Rick Schultz, sophomore Dave Rogers and freshmen Stanley Shroub and Larry Becker. Junior Jim McKinnon is also out, but is injured at present. Burke says the boys have not yet developed specialties and all will try several events.

The girls' events in a dual match are the uneven parallel bars, the balance beam, the free exercise and the side horse vault. Special events and tumbling and the trampoline.

Senior co - captain of the girls is Marylee Stroub, while other seniors are Susan Nusser, Roxie Brewer and the injured Peggy Hoffman. Juniors are Janet Chanels, Betsy Horton and Linda Sheets; Roslyn Christian is the only sophomore; and freshmen are Shirley Wyche, Sharon Burke and Jackie Chavis.

Retirement Hinted By Joe Namath

NEW YORK (AP) — Was the Super Bowl Joe Namath's super farewell to professional football?

The brilliant quarterback, who predicted that the New York Jets would beat the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl and made good his boats, wasn't talking Wednesday—at least on that topic.

"I'm very happy with my life as it is right now," Namath said at a City Hall tribute to the Jets. But he also said:

"Jimmy Brown got out while he was still healthy," referring to the Cleveland Browns' star fullback who retired at the peak of his career to become a movie actor. "You want to make it while you're on top—before you get destroyed."

Namath's knees, operated on several times, are a prime source of concern.

The quarterback currently has several business ventures going, including a New York night spot and string of drive-in restaurants. Namath said he has received a number of other offers—some in the show business field—since the Super Bowl and said he would evaluate the situation after returning from a USO-sponsored tour of Far East military installations. He leaves today.

At the City Hall ceremonies, attended by more than 5,000 persons, Namath paid tribute to his teammates, some 15 of whome were in attendance.

"I've been reading about everything I did," he said, "and I did play good. But if it wasn't for these fellows, where would I be? Everything's a team thing. Believe that, it's a 40-50-man thing."

Baseball Strike Vote Set Feb. 3

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball players will hold a special meeting in New York Monday, Feb. 3, to decide whether to carry out a threatened strike for higher pension benefits.

The players voted 461 to 6 last week to reject the club owners' offer to increase contributions to the pension fund by $1 million for a total of $5.1 million.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, announced Wednesday the situation had reached an impasse and that several players from each club will attend the Feb. 3 meeting to determine a course of action.

Many top stars, including Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Bob Gibson and Carl Yastrzemski, have endorsed the Association's policy of not signing 1969 contracts until a satisfactory benefit plan is worked out.

Spring training is scheduled to begin next month and indications are that unsigned players will not report unless a pension agreement is reached.

Retains Lights-Heavy Title

Foster Whips DePaula On First-Round TKO

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Bob Foster said it wasn't his easiest fight. But his first-round technical knockout of outmatched Frankie De Paula in a title defense at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night has to rate high up on any fighter's soft touch list.

It took the stork-legged, 6-foot-3½ champ from Washington, D.C., just 2 minutes, 17 seconds to drop the 5-8½ challenger from Jersey City, N.J., on the canvas three times. Under New York's three knockdowns in one round rule, the fight was automatically over for the 5-1 underdog.

In that brief period of time, Foster, who once fought for $23 and quit the ring in disgust when he couldn't get any fights, earned about $75,000 from the gross gate of $189,129 contributed by 16,129 fans and the television.

Most of the fans came from New Jersey to root for the crude but hard-hitting night club bouncer. Frankie at least earned about $37,500 to make up for his ruffled feelings.

Foster, winner of 13 straight including 12 knockouts, and his manager, Mushky Salow, plan today to go over a stack of offers for title defenses.

Salow said he had offers totalling more than $300,000 for defenses against Gregorio Peralta in Argentina; Peiro Del Papa in Italy; Bob Dunlap in Australia; Yvan Preberg in Yugoslavia, and Jose Torres in Puerto Rico.

The Garden offered a shot at the winner of the heavyweight fight here Feb. 3 between George Chuvalo and Buster Mathis, but Salow said "we'll take Joe Frazier or Jimmy Ellis with pleasure."

Frazier, of Philadelphia, and Ellis, of Louisville, both hold a piece of the disputed heavyweight title.

De Paula gave the partisan crowd one brief monent of hope early in the first round when he had the champ on the deck. Foster went down from a left to the body but it looked more like a slip since the blow had little steam behind it.

But referee Johnny LoBianco gave the 30-year-old champ the mandatory eight-count.

"I told the referee that it was a slip and I got mad," said Foster.

Just a few seconds later Frankie went down for the first time. Foster said he set up his foe with a jab and a right uppercut ("my best punch") and dropped him with a hook and a right.

"After that, I knew I had him," said Foster.

The next two knockdowns quickly followed, the second from a hook and right to the head and third from a right to the head.

"I wasn't hurt," said De Paula. "My feet went out from under me. A couple of punches stunned me but it was my feet—they just went out from under me.

"They shouldn't have the three-knockdowns rule for title fights. I wasn't hurt."

"I disagree," said Foster. "As the champion, I should be against the rule. But it's a good rule. That's when a guy gets hurt and you can't tell sometimes."

Foster's record now is 38-4, including 28 knockouts. He won the title by knocking out Dick Tiger in the fourth round at the Garden May 24.

Foster weighed 171½ pounds to De Paula's 173.

De Paula now has a 18-7-3 record.

By The Associated Press

Ohio's only undefeated college basketball team, Wittenberg, saw its victory string snapped Wednesday night by Ashland's ball control, and Miami, previously unbeaten in the Mid-American Conference, was bumped by MAC foe Western Michigan.

Ashland, the stingiest team in the nation on defense, dropped Wittenberg 35-28. In the Mid-Am Western downed Miami 71 - 66 while Bowling Green came from behind to nip Toledo 64-63

Ashland, now 15 - 1, took an early 9 - 2 lead then coasted, keeping the ball away from the Tigers, now 10-1. Jim Thrasher scored half of Wittenberg's points—14. John Savage led Ashland with 11.

Steve Mix sank a goal at the buzzer for the Rockets, giving him 27 points for the game and 1,341 for his three-year career, highest in the school's history. Toledo is 2-3 in the conference.

L. A. Stars Stop Oaks' Win Streak

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Oaks, who waited so long for Rick Barry to join them, did perfectly well without him until George Stone ruined them with a last second perfect shot.

Stone's 22-foot jumper brought the Los Angeles Stars a 123-121 victory over the Oaks at Los Angeles Wednesday night, ending ther 16-game winning streak.

The Oaks, galloping off with the Western Division of the American Basketball Association, were 25-4 when Barry suffered a knee injury Dec. 27.

But without Barry, who had to sit out a year before joining Oakland, the Oaks compiled a 10-0 mark until Stone took a pass with three seconds left while his coach, Bill Sharman, pleaded for a time out, and dropped in the winner. He finished with 31 points.

The flowers we placed upon her grave, May wither and decay; But the love for her who sleeps beneath, Shall never fade away.—Sadly missed by husband and children.

Junior Editors Quiz on SCALLOPS

QUESTION: Why are some shells called scallops?

* * *

ANSWER: The shape of the gay, delicate-looking little seashell called a scallop (upper center) has attracted artists and craftsmen for thousands of years. The fluted shape and undulating edge have inspired countless workers in lace as well as silversmiths and master painters. During the Crusades, the scallop shell became the symbol of those knights who had fought in the Holy Land; later, many knights used it as a heraldic symbol on their shields (1). Did you ever know that a scallop had eyes? When scallops open their shells, the eyes appear between as blue dots. And did you realize that scallops can swim? They click their shells together, forcing out jets of water which send them forward. We show the location (4) of the bit of delicious meat, the adductor muscle, which is the only part of the scallop which we eat. The name scallop comes from an old French work for this kind of shell, escalope. We often speak of any undulating edge resembling this shell as a scallop.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Jan. 23, the 23rd day of 1969. There are 342 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1799, French forces captured the Italian city of Naples.

On this date:

In 1668, England, the Netherlands and Sweden formed the Triple Alliance to check Louis XIV of France.

In 1845, the U.S. Congress ruled that all national elections would take place on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

In 1909, radio was first used to save lives at sea. A distress signal brought help when the SS Republic rammed and sank the SS Florida off the New England coast.

In 1920, the Dutch government refussed to surrender ex-Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany to the allies for punishment as a war criminal.

In 1937, in Moscow, 17 Communist leaders confessed they had conspired with Leon Trotsky to undermine the Soviet regime of Joseph Stalin.

In 1943, British troops entered the North African port of Tripoli during World War II.

Ten years ago: Soviet nuclear scientists announced they had begun capacity operation of what was then the world's biggest atom smasher.

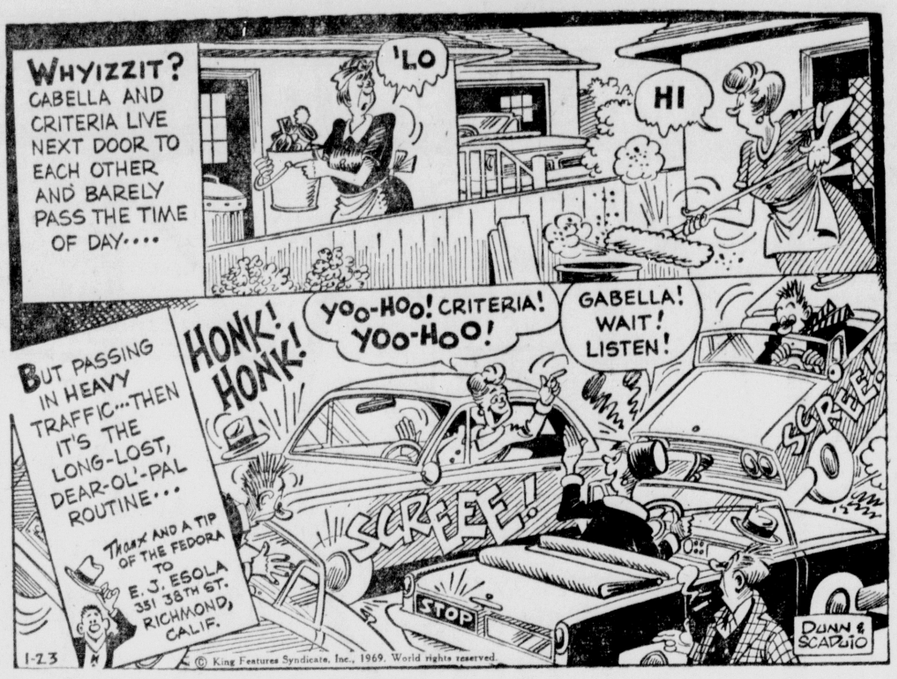

Five years ago: The 24th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution-eliminating the poll tax in federal elections-was ratified.
